ROBERT PAINE | Soldier 1776 | Capt. Pratt's 4th Mass.
Regt. | died | Dec. 2, 1862 | aged 73 y'rs. |

Belle Isle cemetery. This soldier made the following statement which is a sample of others:—

State of New York, Onondaga County, ss.:—

On the 27th day of February, 1822, personally appeared in open court, in the Court of Common Pleas, in and for the county of Onondaga, being a court of record proceeding according to the course of common law, with a jurisdiction unlimited in point of amount, and keeping a record of their proceedings, Robert Pain, aged 73 years, resident in Camillus, in said county, who, being first duly sworn, according to law, doth on his oath declare that he served in the revolutionary war as follows: That he enlisted into the service of the United States in the year 1780, and in July of said year, at West Point, in New York, he joined a company commanded by Capt. Pratt, in the Fourth Massachusetts regiment, and continued in the service until the month of July, 1783, when he was discharged at West Point; that he has lost his discharge. Enlistment was for three years, and I do solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States, on the 18th day of March, 1818, and that I have not since that time, by gift, sale, or in any manner disposed

She was born Nov. 23, 1752. In '71 they moved from Ashby, Mass., to Rindge, N. H. After the Revolution he went to Clarendon, Vt., then to Camillus, N. Y., and back to Vermont in 1815. In 1790 he was in Tinmouth, Vt. The family history says he served in Capt. Thomas's Co., Col. Reed's regiment, at Bunker Hill, and commenced three year's service in '77, in N. H. Line.

In memory of | ZEBULON ISHAM | who departed this life Nov. 19th, 1828 | aged 72 years 7 | months & 12 days.

If death could break our union past |
Frail though endeared the tie! |
The stronger bonds of grace shall last |
When death itself shall die. |

Belle Isle cemetery. The name is that of a private in Capt. Joseph Raymond's Co., Col. Israel Chapen's regiment, in '77. He served 19 days on an expedition to Claverack, N. Y. In the census of 1790 Zebulon Isom was the head of a family in Pittsfield, Mass., and seems the same, names being often carelessly recorded. His wife, Mary, survived him.

REUBEN KIDDER | Soldier | of the Revolution | Died 1828, | Aged 68 y'rs. |

Old cemetery, west of Camillus village. In 1820 Reuben Kidder limped into court on crutches and with his hip out of joint, reporting that his debts were $15 and assets $70.10. A cooper by trade, he was in Capt. Daniel Livermore's Co., Col. Reed's Regt. of N. H. Infantry, and served till the war closed. His wife was then 46 years old, and his children were Noah, Debora, Lemina and Eli. No stone marks his wife's grave, nor does he appear in the census of 1790.

In memory of CAPT. WILLIAM MCCrackEN | who departed this life | on the 9 day of July | A. D. 1830, | Aged 66 years. | first wife Hannah Young Love d. abt 1810

Belle Isle cemetery. William McCracken enlisted in Capt. Joseph McCracken's Co., Col. Van Schaick's Regt., toward the end of the war, serving 3 years and 3 months. In 1820 his debts were $100, his property was worth $24.87, and he had $15 owing him. His wife had been a widow with two daughters, and he had three sons and a daughter

'92, going to Milton, Saratoga Co., and then to Camillus in 1805, where he died May 31, 1839. He enlisted in Capt. Wales' Co. in '77, and served through the war.

The following in Camillus were old enough for service, and their names are on Revolutionary rolls, while they are not clearly identified. All are probable.

In | memory of | BENJ'N CULVER, | who died | Aug. 8, 1827, | aged 82 years. | Also of | TAMAR his wife | who died | March 26, 1830, | aged 82 years. |

Oswego Bitter. In 1790 the name was recorded in Conn., and in Albany and Columbia Cos., N. Y., and it is in the 9th regiment, Land Bounty Rights, Albany Co.—Probable.

SAMUEL HOPKINS | Died | Feb'y 6, 1820, | Ae. 69 Y'rs, 6 Mo. | & 4 D's. |

MARY, | Wife of | Samuel Hopkins, | Died | June 16, 1834, | Ae. 69 Y'rs 7 Mo. | & 29 D's.

Belle Isle cemetery. They came there from Salem, N. Y., in 1807. His name is in 1st Regt., N. Y. Line, and also appears in Mass. rolls. Probable.

In memory of | JOSIAH MARSHALL, | who died Jan. 9, 1814. | aged 63 years. | Also | KEZIA, | wife of | Josiah Marshall: | died May 25, 1837. | aged 84 years. |

Oswego Bitter. In 1790 the name was recorded in Mass. and N. Y. At the Lexington alarm this appears in Capt. Oliver Voce's (Milton) company, serving 10 days from Dorchester, Mass., and also in Capt. George Gould's company, later that year. Probable.

DANIEL MOORE.—This pioneer was born at Bridgehampton, L. I., about 1744, and married Elsie (Younglove?), born in New Jersey and probably of Dutch parentage. He went to Albany, then to Cherry Valley, and died in Camillus, aged about 88. His name is in Graham's Levies and in Albany Co. militia. Probable.

Heydon came from Connecticut and took up a soldier's claim in Pompey in 1800, and his remains lie in the beautiful cemetery at Pompey Hill, marked by a simple monument commemorating his record as a soldier of the Revolution." The land he bought was about a mile east of Pompey Academy. He married Annis Peck, April 9, 1778, who was born in Harwinton.

David Hinsdale was born in Galway

DAVID HIBBARD—A family sketch of this pioneer says that he was a Revolutionary soldier, who settled on lot 6 about 1794. This was near the north line of the town. He bought this lot Aug. 6, 1792, for 200 pounds or $500. He was a carpenter as well as farmer, and in 1790 was in Ballston, N. Y., but was born in Greenwich, Ct., April 23, 1748, and married, in 1768, Leah Cronkhite of Kinderhook, N. Y. Though thus resident in Pompey he died in Milton, N. Y., Sept. 29, 1817, and was buried in Galway, where he had formerly lived. In the Revolution he was baggage-master of ammunition wagons. After the war he removed to Galway in 1784, and to Pompey in '94, where his tenth and youngest child was born. The family history says that Polly, his eldest child, born in 1772, taught the first school in Onondaga Co., at Morehouse's Flats, east of Jamesville. He was a prosperous man and gave his children a good education.

David Hinkley - A family sketch of this pioneer says that he was a Revolutionary soldier, who settled on lot 8 about 1791. This was near the north line of the town. He bought lot 8 for $1000, for 200 pounds or $500. He was a carpenter as well as farmer, and in 1799 was in Baltimore, Md. but was born in Greenwich, Ct. April 22, 1745, and married in 1768, Leah Grosbeck of Kinderhook, N. Y. Through their son, Benjamin, he died in Milton, N. Y. Sept. 29, 1817, and was buried in Olney, where he had bought land. In the Revolution he was sergeant-major of Connecticut regiment. After the war he returned to Cal. way in 1784, and in Fargy in '84 where his wife and youngest child were born. The family history says that Polly, his eldest child, born in 1775, taught the first school in Greenfield, at Newburgh's Falls, east of Jamestown. He was a carpenter and gave his children a good education.

David Hinkley - To the memory of David Hinkley who died Nov. 8, 1821, at 76 years of age. He was a Revolutionary soldier, and a good farmer. He was married to Leah Grosbeck, and they had several children. He was a good man and a good father.

Richard Hinkley - Died June 17th 1840, aged 81 years.

Oran cemetery. He came, it is said, from Brantford, Ct., in 1790, but the name, that year, appears only in Manchester, Vt. It is also in 11th Regt., Albany Co. Land Bounty Rights. There is no record in Connecticut.

Oran cemetery. Somerset militia, N. J. Nothing more of his history appears.

WILLIAM PEASE—In the 17th Regt., Land Bounty Rights, Albany Co., is the name of William Pease, and he was still in Canaan, N. Y., in 1790. Onon. Cent. says he was "one of the earliest settlers of Onondaga Co. Born in Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y., Oct. 29, 1752. Removed to Pompey Hollow, then an unbroken forest, in 1793. Subsequently removed to Illinois, where he died in 1823. His wife's maiden name was Rhoda Tolls."

* In memory of | CAPT. ENOS PECK | who died May | 23d 1835: | In the 83d year | of his age. |

Oran cemetery. Clayton's Onondaga says that Enos Peck, father of Enos Peck of Camillus, came to Pompey from Vermont, and went thence to Cato, N. Y., in 1806. He served in Capt. Bigelow Lawrence's Co. in '81, and was also at Bennington and Saratoga. In 1790 he lived in New Haven, Addison Co., Vt. He bought lot 23, May 12, 1798.

LOT PHELPS—This pioneer was born in Windsor, Ct., in 1724, living in Colebrook later, whence he removed to Pompey. His son Luther, born in 1755, came with him, but does not appear in the Conn. rolls. The father was in Capt. David Barber's Co., Windsor, Ct.

JOHN NEARING—In 1820 this pensioner said he was 67 years old and very feeble. His wife was 64. His property was valued at $212.70, and included what was owed him by David Case, Chester Chadwick, Abner Hamblin, Henry Lyman and I. Nearing. He served in Capt. Aaron Austin's Co., Col. Charles Burrell's Regt., of Conn. troops. The rolls also make him sergeant in Capt. Mills' Co., '78. In 1790 he was in Bristol, Ct. Guy Nearing was administrator, Dec. 16, 1837.

also kept the Miller

HEZEKIAH OLCOTT—This pioneer's name is in Capt. Aaron Austin's Co., Ct., '76, and as lieutenant in Capt. Pendleton's Co., New Hartford. In 1790 he was living at Hartford, Ct., according to the census. In 1791 he was a lieutenant in our local militia, captain in '92, and 1st major in '94. Mr. Chase gives his record as follows: "The record of Col. 'Olcutt,' as it is spelled in the Revolutionary Register, is that of sergeant of Baldwin's Artillery Artificer Regiment (Conn.), 1st of October, 1777, and second lieutenant, 12th of November, 1779, in which he served to the close of the war." While surveying the State road from Cazenovia to Skaneateles, in 1804, as stated, Col. Olcott died of fever at Pompey West Hill, now in LaFayette. He was buried with military honors at Pompey Hill, where he lived. The date is wrong, for Ebenezer Butler, Jr., and Joseph Colton were his administrators, Dec. 22, 1800.

BETSEY | Wife of | Sherebiah Evans | died April 22, | 1841, | in the 67 year of | her age. |

Ionia cemetery. In Mr. Chase's list his death is placed in 1820. His wife made an affidavit and his property was valued at $92.76. He had a daughter aged 13, and three sons, who were 16, 10 and 7 years old. Thomas, the oldest, is buried by him. It is said that Mr. Evans ran the first mill at Marcellus. He was from Wilmington, Mass., and served in Capt. Foster's Co., '77, and in others later. After the war he went to Vermont before coming to New York, and is said to have been born in Wales. He married Elizabeth Dudley, who, as Betsey, was administrator, Sept. 2, 1820, showing an error on the stone. He came to Boston in 1774 as a shipwright, and after finishing some work, enlisted. In 1798 he went to Marcellus, and afterward built and operated a grist-mill at Sand Springs, Van Buren. While building a dam at Baldwinsville a fever ended his life.

Dear Jackie,

ELIZABETH KOMANECKY
225 E EDGEWOOD DR #128
LAKELAND FL 33803

February 25, 1991

I so enjoyed the afternoon and it was great meeting you.

Will try to answer a few questions.

Howard, my Dad definitely wrote The Yellow Pages. It's his handwriting and I remember when he gave it to me.

Charles McCarty is the right name - Not McC Carthy.

I remember a Bennett family who lived about a mile from the old post Brick (Hinsdale) home. It was just below the beginning of Hinsdale Rd. only on the other side of the road. Think it was torn down. They had a daughter Bennetta (?) & a son James who was or is a Dr. I knew Bennetta - think she was around my age. A number of years ago he practiced in Baldwinville. My hand doesn't always write the way I want to. must be old age!!

Guess Dad was mixed up about Ira Hinsdale Jr. regarding counterfeiting & racing, maybe it was Baron. ?

2) I sure was wrong. It was Frank Colburn whose body Dad & Mom took to Illinois for Burial.

I told you that Peck lived on Pattery Road Near Ambay. Wonder now if it was Palmer. Uncle ^{Dr} Tom's brother, always went to the farm on that Road to visit someone. I can remember being there.

The Property that was sold to the City for an airport included 120 acres from the farm. Loved that airport as a child. many well known people flew in there. a couple of old maid ladies (the Coxes) used to feed geeps from the airport. They'd get all the news about expected arrivals.
we kids would rush down there when someone well known was coming.
Had a good close look at Lindberg.

my brother parked Cars for $ 5 & in the apple orchard, bean yard & etc. when Lindberg came & also for air shows. He made a fair amount.

I had a great childhood in that little town. The town was sure in better shape than it is now.

3) mom (Israel) died in April 1974.
Dad passed away in August 1984
within 10 days of his 94th Birthday. He had a Pacemaker, but never took any medicine. His mind was good until 2 days before he passed away. They are both buried in Belle Dale Cemetery.

Hope we get together again Jackie - I'll copy things from the Family Bible when we get up there the end of May.

Thanks for all the information you have given me.

Take Care

Sincerely - Betty

wish I had a typewriter. Could type.

✓ P.S. your uncle Vern Snyder's 1st wife was a sister of Hazel Peterson.
I never remembered her. She got taking dope & died young.

This historical narrative and commentary on the Snyder and Hinsdale Families was written by Howard Snyder to his children, Jane, Betty and Bob, early in 1967.

The Snyder (Schneider) family, my grandparents on my Father's side, came from a small town near Berlin, Germany. Grandad William married Christina Seifert. They emigrated to the U.S. about the middle of the 19th century. The trip took fifteen weeks since the sailing vessel was blown to the east coast of South America. Grandad was an imperial guard of the Kaiser, so he must have been a large man. They came to Syracuse, living in a brick house on Gifford Street, which house still stood in 1966. There the children were born - namely, Charles, Margaret, Elizabeth, Hannah and William. Grandad was a cobbler and liked his liquor as did William, Jr.

- 2 Margaret married Joe Brame, whom I never knew. Then she married Joe Delant, a moulder at the Globe Iron Works. Their children were Margaret, Hilda and Clifford. Margaret was arrested at a camp at Oneida Lake with a drunken gang, tucked into jail and next morning was found dead in the cell by hanging. Hilda married Robert Kaiser. Clifford, who never married, was killed in an auto crash about 1945.
- 3 Aunt Elizabeth married Charles Marquard. Their child was Charles, Jr. At one time they lived in the Bennett house, now Witherow's.
- 4 Aunt Hannah married Henry Bros (no relation of Tito whose name is Bros). Their children were Henry, John and Jessie.
- 1 Charles, my Dad, married Martha Field. More of this anon.
- 5 William married a gal who also liked her liquor. They had no children and I don't remember them at all.

Grandmother was a short, plump woman who spoke mostly German. My Dad told me of his coming home from work and William, his brother, was standing with his head on the mantle. He had been drinking and Grandma was lambasting his rear with a belt. Dad said "What's going on here?" Bill turned and said "Ma is enjoying herself and I don't mind." Grandma threw down the belt and never spanked Bill again.

The Field family, my Mother's parents, came from England. James Field married Martha Larkin and after a six week voyage they landed at New York, about the middle of the 19th century. James was a farmer and his first position was as manager of John Roberts' farm, which was where the John Roberts school is. He saved some money and bought a farm at the corner of Route 173 and Belle Isle Road in Fairmount. James and Martha had two children, Martha and George. Grandmother and George both died young. James married as his second wife a Mrs. Ray. They were never happy and James brooded and finally sat on the Railroad track and was killed. My Dad gave Mrs. Ray $200.00 to leave the place.

Some time earlier, Charles Snyder, who worked in a shoe factory and a pen factory in Syracuse, was asked by Ernest Gak (the grandfather of our late County Coroner Ernest Gak) to come to Fairmount and peddle milk for him. Charles boarded at Gak's, met Martha Field and they were married. Their children were Vernon, born at Fairmount, Howard, George, Elmer, Earl and Marion.

In her teens Mother worked for a Mrs. Geddes on the same farm where our apartment is located. Dad bought the milk route of Gak and peddled for nine years. He built a house in Solvay about three doors from Balduzzi's market. About 1888 Charles and Martha sold the farm and house and bought the farm of John White for $14,000, paying $7,000 and giving a mortgage of $7,000. Dad and my Mother's Uncle Walter Larkin went farming together but soon broke up. Dad rented his farm for three years and had a job as lock tender on the Erie Canal. The salary was $48.00 per month and was quite a bonanza for those days. Dad was a good farmer, always seeking better seeds for more productivity. He was a natural mechanic, making patterns for parts which he had casted by Tom Gale at a foundry on East Water Street. He took a course in Mechanical Drawing and Design and made his own blue prints. The house we built in Amboy was designed by him as was the house Earl and I built for Vernon at Fairmount. He read a log - political news, etc. The Kansas City Star was a favorite paper.

Mother hated house work but loved a vegetable garden and poultry of all kinds. Dad always went to Church; mother hardly ever. Sunday on the farm was a day to entertain city relatives. I cannot remember any of the Aunts helping to do anything on Sundays but eat the food. Dad finally put his foot down.

In Amboy Frank Colburn ran a wagon shop near the paper mill. Frank was a close friend of Mom and Dad and came for Sunday dinner most always, and stayed til 8:00 P.M. I recall sitting by the fire listening to them sing old English Ballads and Steven Foster folk songs. On Sunday afternoons we would walk around the farm estimating the yield of the crops. Years later your Mom and I had the sad trip to Ridot, Illinois, to take Frank's body for burial. The grave diggers looked like two ruffians out of a Western TV show. The cemetery was a weedy place. I was fond of Frank and when I paid the characters I told them they had done a poor job. The grave was shallow and so narrow that they had to stomp on the box. I remember one of them said "Well, no one ever got out of here yet." Your grandfather Hinsdale was executor of Frank's Colburn estate and later sold the house to my Dad and Mother.

1. Vernon, the oldest son, after a hard struggle financially, graduated from Syracuse Medical School in about 1906. He and a young minister, C. VanDusen, drove for three days to Fine, New York, where Vernon set up his office in his hotel room. From Fine Vernon, having married Charlotte Jacobson, a sister of Hazel Petersen, moved to Constableville, New York, where Martha was born. Constableville was named for the Arnold Constable family, New York store owners. Vernon moved to South Geddes Street in Syracuse. Lottie became a drug addict and died of a heart attack about 1920. Vernon moved to South Warren Street and later accepted an offer from the Town Board of Inlet to come there and practise for $2000 per year. He bought a home across from the Catholic Church. Shortly he married Mildred Puffer. Their children, Doris and Nancy, were born at Inlet. In 1930 Earl and I built a house for Vernon at Fairmount where he practised for many years. He passed away in February, 1961. Nancy, after whom Betty's girl is named, died about 1953, three days after girl, Linda Rausch, was born. Doris married Bob Dingman. They and their two boys, Mark and Tim, live in New Jersey.

2. I, four years after graduating from Solvay High School, had one year at Syracuse University as a pre med student. Then, discouraged by Vernon's struggle, transferred to Cornell Ag. I was there one year and due to Dad's health took two winter courses. There I learned to splice rope, play pool and something of gas engines. I boarded at Mrs. Kelly's for $3.50 per week and had a private room for $1.50 per. Coming with $17.00 left and chasing the elusive Grace Hinsdale, I was asked by her father to run his farm. More of this anon.

5. Earl, graduated from Camillus High, met Helen Rowe who became a teacher, and married her. Result - a son Donald. Donald married Gladys They have two sons, David and Drew.

6. Marion married Arnold Rice when she was 18. Their children children were Barbara, Jean, Lois and Dick. Dick, home from the Service, married Janet Stevens and died of an aneurism in 1957. Barbara lives at Clayton, New York. Her second husband died of drink in 1965. Lois' first husband committed suicide. She and her second live at Clayton. Jean married Dick Kinaley and lives at Niskayuna. Marion died in

My Dad Passed away in 1942 and Mother in 1946.

The Hinsdales, Welsh, Irish and English, came to Amboy from Connecticut. Ira, your greatgrandad, owned the farm where the brick^{house} and 160 acres of woodland at Amboy Station, of which 20 acres are still in our possession. (The Church was built in the same year, on land which Ira gave the Society. All of the lumber for the house came from Ira's woods. He married an Ann somebody. Their children were Ira, Jr., Aaron, Alfred and Mary. + DAVID who d. age 8

He built the brick house 1845.

1. Ira must have been sort of wild. He loved horse races and peddled counterfeit money for a John Sims who was a distributor. Sims died in Auburn prison. Ira, Jr., was killed in a racing accident. SEE Confound the Grave in Index by James Millard BAKER

2 Aaron once lived in what we knew as the old Reed House on the East side of the farm. He had a daughter who, after her mother's death, lived with Alfred's family. Later she was a Secretary of Steinmetz. She died young of diphtheria.

3 Mary married a Baker and their children were James, who became a Missionary in India, Edward, who married a Palmer from the Pottery Road, and Charles. (Also Florence) Sister of Bingham Palmer in Nettie Collins in John Clark
Ira, Sr., died young and his widow married a Squire Townsend from Lysander. (Squires were like Kentucky Colonels). Isaac Munro's great grandfather became guardian for the children. DAVID 4 Alfred married Jennie Ellis from South Onondaga. Jennie had a brother, A. D., who luckily for a woman never married. He was a pill. Her sister, Fanny, married E. M. Upton of Rochester. Their children were Fannie, Belle, and Carrie. The latter two were whacky! Fannie married Rob Liptrott and moved to Amityville, L.I. Their daughter and her husband (Mary's) died of cirrhosis of the liver. Another daughter lives in (Fannie) Detroit. Son Upton is in the Financial District in New York. Betty married a relative of "Uncle Joe Cannon", divorced him, married twice more, and now lives near Bradenton, Florida. Bob, Betty, Mom and I visited the Liptrotts in 1940.

Alfred and Jennie had four children, Cora, Ellis, Grace, and Ira.

1. Cora married Henry Jay Gaylord. They had no children but adopted three. ① Jane died as a baby. ② Alfred married Mary Mills. They had four children, Janet, Judy, Gene and an adopted boy, Jay. Alfred passed away about 1948. (Mary married more and lives in Florida.) ③ Alice married and divorced her husband and died in 1965 of cirrhosis of the liver. Jay, Sr., died in 1953 and Cora in 1964.

2 Ellis married Ada Strohm. Their children were Gladys, Albert, Dwight and Edith. Gladys married Harry Poultridge. They have no children. Albert married a Slingerland girl, divorced her and married Ruth Stumm. Dwight became a Doctor, settled in Delanson, temporarily lost his license on narcotics charges, and lives with a woman without benefit of Clergy. Edith married Phil Manro and lives in St. Louis. later to Pulaski, NY

3 Ira graduated from Syracuse University and Cornell Medical School and worked for Eastman Kodak. He moved to New York and married Robin Ridgeway whose father was affiliated with Muncy Magazine. Their children are Cynthia and Robin, Jr. Ridgeway's

4 Your Mother, Grace, was a very attractive girl and my only sweetheart. She had been to Europe, had nice clothes and had gone to Wheaton Seminary. She, had were her sister and brothers, was born in the brick house. After a long chase, she agreed to marry me on June 3, 1914. Our children are Bob, Jane and Betty. Their histories are known to you all. 1888-1974 all graduated from college.

The night before Alfred suffered a shock, he told me of his struggles as a young farmer. When he became 21, he bought his brother's share of the property. He tried sheep farming, then raised potatoes in a big way. He found that the yield diminished the second time around so he thought he should have a dairy for fertilizer. He moved four barns end to end. The building then was 40' by 200'. He kept 80 head of cattle. He build a 40' by 60' tobacco shed and raised 8 acres of tobacco per year. He set out 100 acres of willows but soon plowed up 65 acres. He bought an abandoned lodge building near the Cox house. He hired Italians from Gere's Lock to cut the willows. Then these were taken to a steam building near our first home. Steaming loosened the bark. Then the willows were taken to the basement of the corn house, stripped of the bark, then to the old lodge building where German families lived upstairs and made baskets down. When a load of baskets was made, Son Ellis and a hired man loaded the baskets and travelled the area selling them. 30 acres of the willows were white and 5 acres were ~~white~~ black, heavier and were used for the bottoms and handles of the baskets. About 1875 Alfred mortgaged his property, bought a block of Ellis Street, in East Syracuse, of his brother-in-law, A. D. Ellis, and built 39 small houses. He sold them around 1910. Both Alfred and Jennie passed away in 1927.

After High School I had to defer college for financial reasons, until Vernon was launched on his career. I went one year to Syracuse University as a pre-medical student. Dad was not well and I transferred to Cornell for one year and took two winter courses later. When I came home Alfred asked me to run his farm. I hired Charles McCarthy for $25.00 per month plus house, wood, milk, etc. The next year Mom and I were married. About 1921 we bought the farms and moved into the brick house soon after. In October of 1918 the barns burned. We had $1200 insurance and lost about $6000. A new barn and sheds were built from lumber from the woods and buildings bought from the Solvay Process Co. at Split Rock. I was named a Justice of the Peace in 1921, Town Supervisor in 1938. In 1955 I resigned as Supervisor to become Executive Secretary in the County Tax Office, retiring on August 1, 1960.

Interesting events follow:

My Dad went into the pig business. He bought a boar from Harperring Brothers at Dundee, New York, and a sow from a Dr. Hubbell of Dewitt. Walter Lee, a boasting neighbor, and I went after the sow. Coming up East Genesee Street to Salina Street we stopped for the Cop's signal. Walter was so busy telling me a yarn that he didn't see the Cop motioning us on. The Cop yelled, Walter hit Polly a crack, she jumped and pig and crate fell off the wagon. Men came and loaded crate and pig. Walter took me to a restaurant on Railroad Street for a 15¢ lunch. When Dad heard where we'd eaten he stormed. He said the dirtiest man he ever hired had been a cook there once. The lunch seemed o.k. to us. Dad raised 200 pigs, but overfed them and many were badly deformed. I used to shoot the poor ones and hang them up to practise dressing them. The sow was a cannibal and ate her babies, so she went to the pork barrel. Pete, the boar, fell back end first into a well in the barn. The road gang pulled him out. Vernon gave him a shot but the next morning Pete had passed away. Mother sent me to Hay's Store at Belle Isle to phone the news of Pete's demise. As I said over the phone "Pete's dead", Mrs. Hay said "my, my". I hung up and she asked "Peter who?" "Oh, Pete was our pig." No news for Mrs. Hay to peddle. So ended the pig venture.

One year, Dad had to buy hay for the cattle from James Bennett. He kept track of all feed bills and milk checks very carefully. April 1st he said, "Well, Howard, you and I each made $1.50 the past month, plus the manure." That news wound up the dairy business. Our price for milk then was 2¢ per quart in the summer and 2½¢ in the winter. Dad sold the dairy and began to specialize in alfalfa and potatoes, and soon began to pay up the mortgage.

The Brick House:

IRA Hinsdale 50
This house where you spent most of your childhood was built in 1845 at a cost of $7,000. All of the lumber came from your great-grandad's woods. The shingles for the roof were split from two foot pieces of pine. A rive, shaped like a drawshave with a horizontal handle, was used to split the blocks. In 1873 the shingles were removed and a standing seam tin roof was installed by Ed Darling of Camillus. Some of this roof was still on in 1966. The down spouts, made of Swedish iron riveted, were still used in 1966. A 4' by 4' by 8' tank was built in the wood shed attic for rain water. A well and pump were in the kitchen. A zinc lined tub was placed in the bathroom. All of the water pipes were lead. These were replaced when water was obtained from Otisco Lake about 1916. The old wood burning furnace was replaced in 1888 by a big coal burner and was operating when we moved in 1948.

The Old Airport:

In 1926 Mayor Hanna had appointed an Aviation Committee to consider a site for a proposed airport for the City of Syracuse. Two of the committee were Leland Kincaid, a World War I aviator, and Dr. Luther. One night Mom suggested we go to see Leland with whom she had gone to school. He was interested in the property and said a meeting was being held the next day and they would take a look. Time went by, then one night when all of us but Father Hinsdale were at a Church Social, Dr. Luther flew and he and Father made a deal although it was thought that 80 acres would be enough. The deal was closed in 1927 by which time both Mother and Father Hinsdale had passed away. The Airport was abandoned in 1947 and the Hancock Field was activated with hundreds of acres. Albert

In 1934, when Earl and I were remodelling two houses in Elbridge, a cute young lady from next door used to come over and chat every day. She was Jane something or other. One morning as we drove by her house a yellow Franklin car backed out. The driver looked like Luther. We spoke to the Glidden gal about it and we never saw Jane again. Jane was not Luther's wife, by marriage anyway.

The sow was a cannibal and used to eat her babies. So she went to the pork barrel. Pete the boar fell in a well in the barn, back end first.

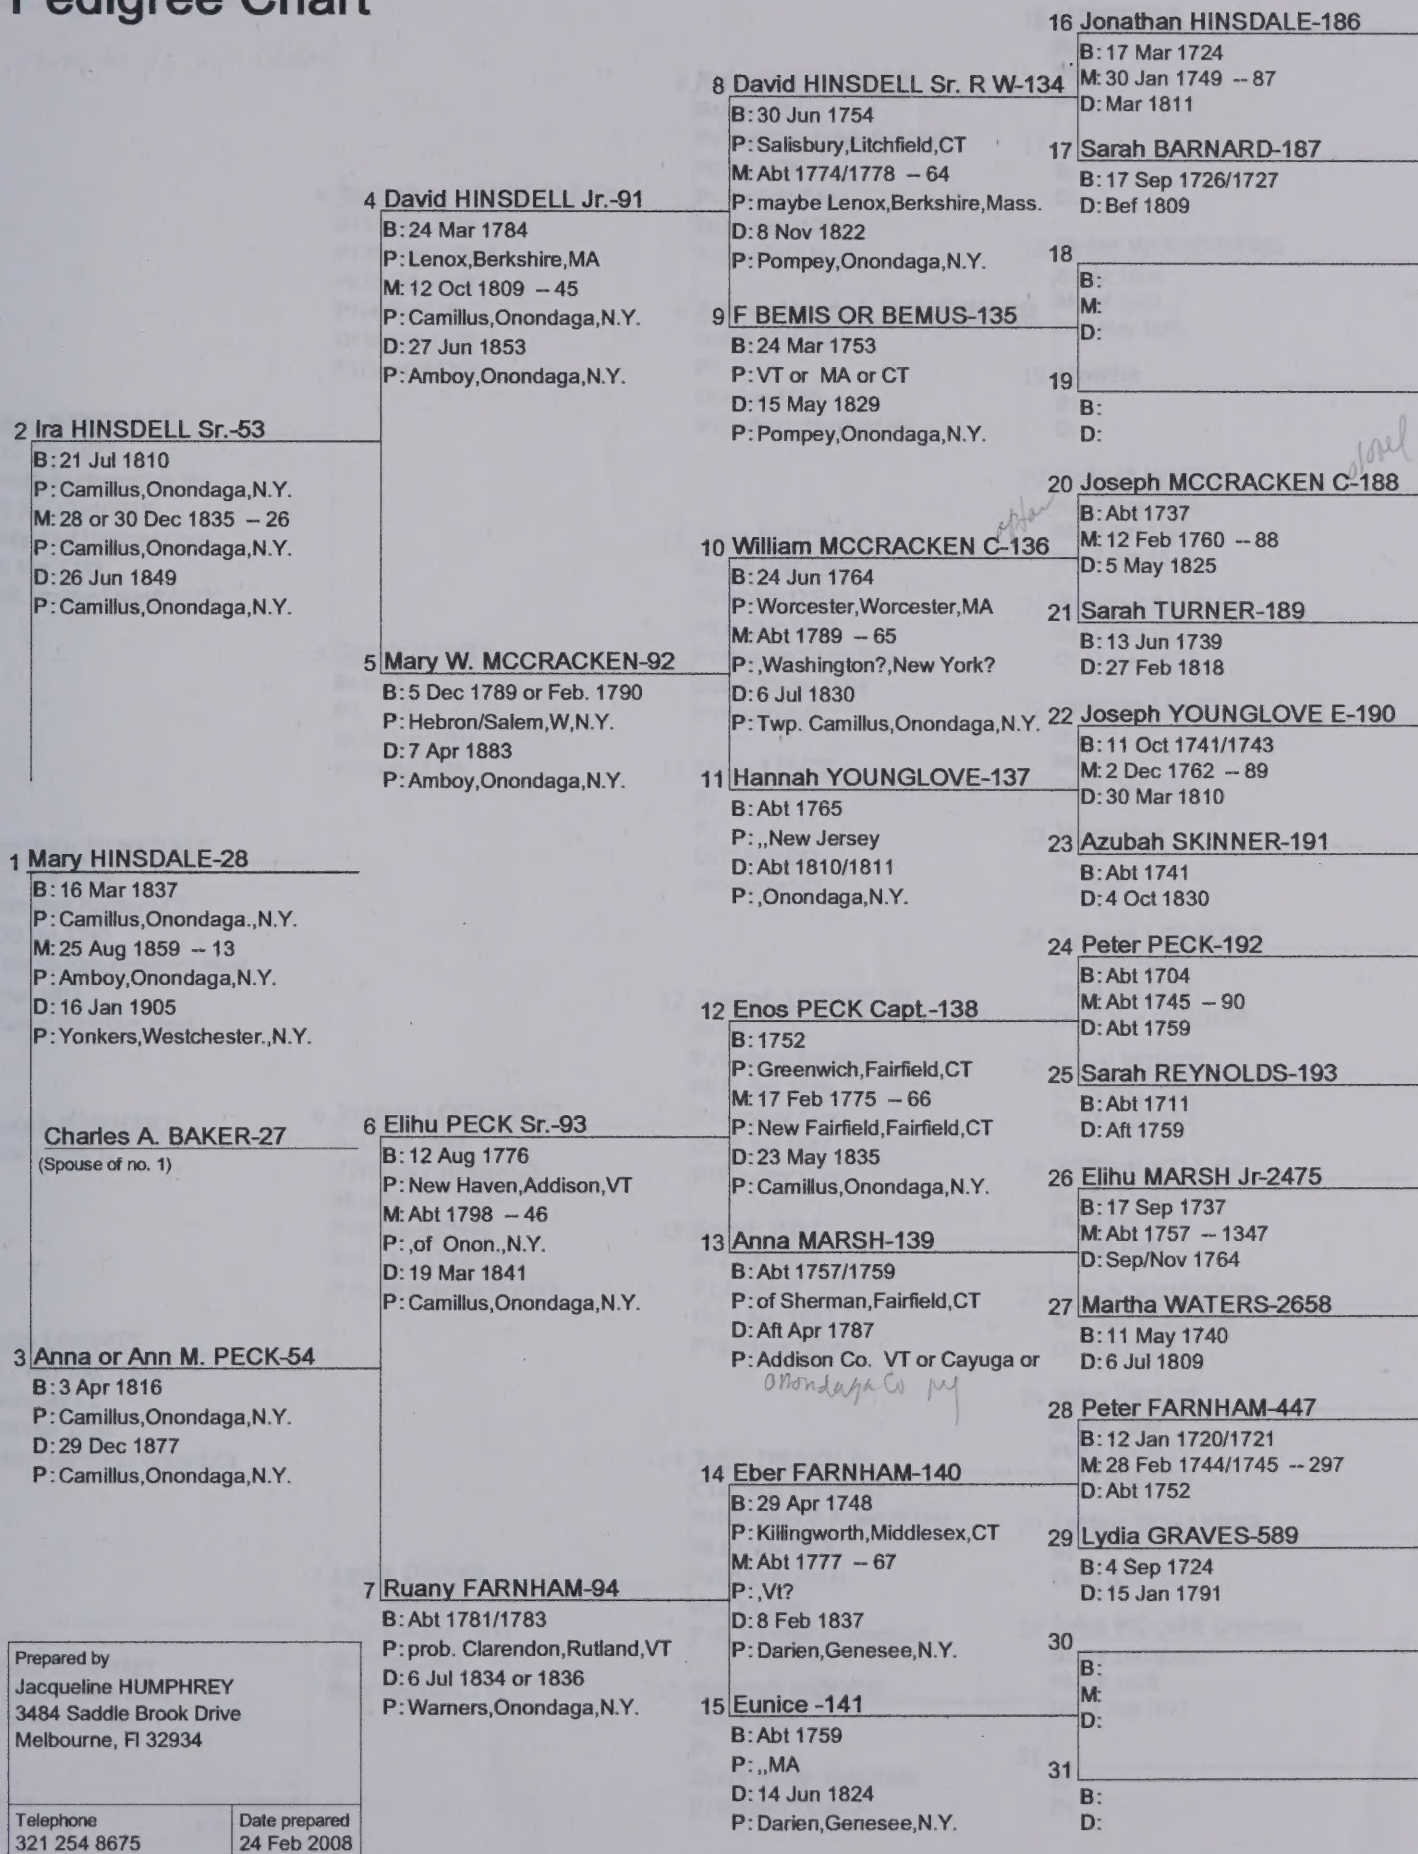

The road gang pulled him out. Vernon gave him a shot but in the morning Pete was dead. Mother sent me to Hays store and had me call Vernon. As I told him Pete had gone to his reward, Mrs Hays gasped and said "My my. Bad luck up she said "Pete a ho". Oh Pete was our boar pig. No story for Mrs Hays to peddle. That was the end of the pig business.

One year our hay crop failed, so my Dad bot hay of J Bennett. Keeping aunts of feed & hay bot for one month and rec'd for milk. Dad told me that he and I after paying for feed for the cattle, had each made 1.00 for the month, plus the manure. That news wound up the dairy. The cattle were sold and Dad went into raising alfalfa & potatoes. Then he began to pay off his mortgage.

The Districts of Albany County, New York, 1784

Between 1772 and 1788 various records were generated by the districts which are useful to genealogists. Prior to 1788 these districts ceased to function as administrative units when an act of the state legislature. There are several tax lists to be found in the New York State Archives and the State Library Manuscripts and Special Collections in Albany, and The New-York Historical Society in New York City. As I worked with these tax lists and needed to know the location of the districts, I searched in vain for a map showing their boundaries. To help visualize the different locations, I prepared accompanying rough maps, which my son Peter has given a more professional presentation, for which I express my appreciation. Although not precise, I find the maps useful and would like to share whatever value they have with others. The maps' value is increased by knowledge of what towns are included in each district. The table below has been constructed from French's 1860 Gazetteer, which see for further detail concerning boroughs.

The Districts of Albany County, New York, 1772

By an act of the state legislature 7 March 1788 these districts ceased to function as administrative units when Albany County was divided into towns (Laws of the State of New York, 1886, 1:748f.). In most cases the districts were simply turned into towns.

HINSDALE GENEALOGY.

1. DEACON ROBERT HINSDALE¹, the emigrant and founder of the family in America, came to Dedham, Mass., probably from Dedham, County Essex, England, and was a proprietor of that town in 1637. He was made a member of the Board of Selectmen, July 18, 1637. His home was "on the Easternmost playne." On July 28, 1638, the town granted to him "six acres of meadowland besides the hill." He was one of the eight founders of Dedham first church, November 8, 1638. On March 13, 1639, he was admitted freeman of Massachusetts Colony. On May 17, 1639, he, with six others, was given "full power to contrive, execute and perform all the business and affairs of this, our whole town." On June 21, 1639, he, with four others, was given full power to apportion to each settler his share of meadowland, and the "townsmen say they will stand fully satisfied without complaining or disquiet howsoever the said men shall order their said parcels of meadow." On December 31, 1639, he and seven others were chosen "for the ordering of the town affairs" for one year and were given full power. On July 6, 1640, he was granted "one parcel of upland lying upon the backside of his furthestmost parcel of meadow and betwixt the said meadow and one parcel of coarse meadow lying on the other side thereof." On September 28, 1640, he was deputed to measure land for Francis Chickering. On October 22, 1640, he and two others were deputed "to set out to John Allin, our Pastor 120 acres of upland for a farm." On December 29, 1640, he was chosen, with two others, surveyor of highways for the following year. On January 1, 1645, he, with others, signed the petition for a free school at Dedham to be supported by tax. They agreed to raise the sum of twenty pounds per annum in support of the school. This is supposed to have been the first school in this country supported in this manner.

On January 1, 1645, he was chosen one of the seven Selectmen for the following year. On February 4, 1645, he was granted five acres and three roods of woodland. The records show that he was a faithful attendant on town meetings, and he appears to have been a valuable and public-spirited member of the community.

* In 1645, he was chosen a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, the oldest military organization in this country, founded March 13, 1638, and which still proudly maintains its existence. Upon the rolls of its members are to be seen the names of men who in their day, through the entire history of Massachusetts, were foremost in peace and war, and who occupied the highest place in science, art and literature, and in social, political and military life. At no time could any but a distinguished citizen have become a member of this society. On November 14, 1649 he was appointed one of a committee of Dedham citizens to organize a new town which afterwards came to be Medfield, Mass. In 1651 the General Court of Massachusetts Colony incorporated the town, the 41st in the colony, and named it Medfield. Robert Hinsdale was chosen one of its first Board of Selectmen and served six years. He was among the first thirteen who took up houselots at Medfield, and his homestead there was on what is now North Street. The original well is still in use. He built his house in Medfield in 1652. In 1659 he "purchased a bell and brought it up for the use of the town." Soon after, the town granted him forty-six acres of land near what is now Collin's Mill. He built a mill there which was burned by the Indians in 1676. He was active in organizing the first Medfield church.

He had mortgaged his land in Medfield in 1656. On August 20, 1663, he and his wife Ann conveyed lands in Medfield to Jeremiah Tauke, citizen and clothworker of London, as security for the payment of certain sums. About 1667 he removed with his family to the Connecticut Valley, settling first at Hadley, Mass., where in 1672 he was released from military duty "on account of age and a sore leg." * He was an original proprietor in the eight thousand acre grant made by the Dedham people at Deerfield, Mass., then known as Pocumtuck, where he drew by lot in 1671, lot 31, the present site of the Willard House. He and his four sons were inhabitants of Deerfield, November 13, 1673. He was there deacon of the first church and one of the principal and most active citizens. He and his son Samuel, Sampson Frary, John Farrington, and Samuel Daniel were the only men of the original thirty-two Dedham proprietors of Pocumtuck who became actual settlers of Deerfield. The others sold out their rights.

Deacon Robert Hinsdale and his three sons, Samuel, Barnabas and John, were slain in the ever memorable fight with the Indians at Muddy (afterwards called Bloody) Brook, near Deerfield, where from ambush some seven hundred Indians under King Philip attacked and killed nearly every one of the little band of whites, led by Captain Thomas Lathrop, about one hundred in number, September 18, 1675. By this slaughter eight women of Deerfield were made widows, one, the wife of the Captain, and four, the wives of Robert and his three sons. All the slain were "buried in one dreadful grave." A corner-stone of a marble monument, twenty-six feet in height, was laid in memory of the slain, September 30, 1835, on which occasion the Hon. Edward Everett delivered an impressive discourse, found among his published orations. The monument was completed in August, 1838. The following is the inscription upon the tablet of the Monument:

"On this ground, Capt. Thomas Lathrop and eighty men under his command, including eighteen teamsters from Deerfield, conveying stores from that town to Hadley, were ambushed by about seven hundred Indians and the Captain and seventy-six men slain, September 18th, 1675. (Old style.)"

The inventory of Robert Hinsdale's estate was taken October 22, 1676. His son Ephraim was surety for the widow Elizabeth. Deacon Robert Hinsdale married as his first wife, probably in England, ANN WOODWARD, daughter of Peter Woodward of Dedham, by whom he had six sons and two daughters, probably all born in Dedham. She was a sensitive and timid woman, and fainted away on making profession of her faith before the church at Dedham June 2, 1639. The Puritan method of admission to church membership was by public profession of faith and confession of sin before the congregation, an ordeal trying to the timid and now fortunately obsolete. The church records relate: "The wife of our brother Hinsdale being fearful and not able to speak in publike, but fainting away ther, coming to church in private gave good satisfaction; which being publicly testified and declared, and she confirming the same relation to be so, was received." She died June 4, 1666, and he married, second, about 1668, ELIZABETH, widow of John Hawks of Hadley, by whom he had no issue. She was a woman of different mold from Ann. The union did not prove a happy one and they soon parted. At the court held March 30, 1674, they were "presented for living assunder contrary to law," also charged "with lascivious and wanton carriage;" on the examination she refused to answer and appears to have got off clear; he said he "did it as being her head and having the rule of her in the Pointe and that he did it for her correction of her disorder towards him." The court held he had "broken the Perfect rule of divine law Mal. 2: 16; Matt. 19: 6; and 1 Peter 3: 7 & the law of the Colony in the intent if not in the letter in the first living assunder" and ordered him "whipped ten stripes on the naked body" and imposed a fine for which his sons became responsible and which the court refused to remit after his tragic death. On June 25, 1683, his widow Elizabeth married Thomas Dibble of Windsor, Conn., and died September 25, 1689.

2. ELIZABETH HINSDALE¹ (Robert¹), daughter of Deacon Robert Hinsdale and his first wife, Ann Woodward, was married at Boston, Mass., July 7, 1657, by Governor Endicott, to JAMES RISING, of Boston, who at the age of eighteen years, and in the year 1635, sailed for the Bermudas from London, Eng.; was at Harvard College in 1646; removed to the Bermudas; returned to Salem, Mass.; and in a few years removed to Windsor, Conn., where he was admitted an inhabitant March 11, 1668. Elizabeth died at Windsor, August 11, 1669. He married, second, August 13, 1673, widow Martha Bartlett. He kept the Rivulet Ferry at Windsor. In 1679 he removed to Suffield, Mass., where he died September 11, 1688. He was the only one of that name among the early New England settlers, and probably ancestor of all of that name in this country. He had two children by his first wife, perhaps others.

Children:

10. i. JAMES, died 1690, without issue.

11. ii. JOHN, married 1684; died 1720.

3. BARNABAS HINSDALE¹ (Robert¹), son of Deacon Robert Hinsdale and his first wife, Ann Woodward, born November 13, 1639, probably at Dedham, Mass.; baptized November 17, 1639; married, October 15, 1666, SARAH WHITE, daughter of Elder John White of Hartford, Conn., and widow of Stephen Taylor of Hatfield, Mass. He went with his father to Hadley, Mass., and lived for several years at Hatfield. He was of Deerfield, Mass., March 27, 1674, when he sold out his Hadley homestead. He lived on lot nine in Deerfield, and also owned lot fifteen which was sold by his heirs in 1707 to Samuel Carter. On May 3, 1667, he, with twenty-four other citizens of Hatfield joined in a petition to the General Court of Massachusetts Colony to have a church established at Hatfield, "on the west side of the river, commonly called by the name of the Connecticut River, where we, for the most part, have lived about six years, and have attended on God's ordinances on the other side of the river at the appointed seasons that we could or durst to pass over the river, the passing being very difficult and dangerous, both in summer and winter, which thing hath proved, and is, an oppressive burden for us to bear, which if by any lawful means, it may be avoided, we should be glad and thankful to this Honored Court to ease us therein, conceiving it to be a palpable breach of the Sabbath," etc. This petition was granted and they were allowed a church. Barnabas Hinsdale was killed with Lathrop at Bloody Brook, September 18, 1675. His widow Sarah married, third, February 3, 1679, Walter Hickson, and died August 10, 1702.

4. SAMUEL HINSDALE¹ (Robert¹), son of Deacon Robert Hinsdale and his first wife, Ann Woodward, born about 1641-2 in Dedham, married October 31, 1660, MEHITABEL JOHNSON, born 1644; baptized March 29, 1646; died August 4, 1689; daughter of Humphrey Johnson of Roxbury, Mass., and Ellen Cheney, his wife. Samuel Hinsdale was killed with Lathrop at Bloody Brook, September 18, 1675. He removed with his father from Dedham to Medfield; married at seventeen, and soon after becoming of age, joined the settlers at Hadley. In 1664, he, with forty-four other citizens of Medfield, signed the now famous Medfield Memorial, of which the following is a copy: "To the Honored General Court of Massachusetts Colonie assembled on the 19th day of the 8th month 1664, the humble Representation of the inhabitants of Medfield. Forasmuch as we have heard that there have been Representations made unto his Majestie concerninge divissions among us & dissatisfaction about the present Government of this Colonie. HUSBAND - Ira HINSDALE Sr.-53

Ira Hinsdale's birth and death listed in Hinsdale Gen'y, which also lists his marr. to Ann Peck at Camillus on 28 Dec. 1835. Hinsdale bible lists his birth and death as well as his marriage on 28 Dec. 1835. Lists his wife Ann Peck's birth and death, as well as the date of Mrs. Ann P. Hinsdale's 2nd marr. date to Justus Townsend and Townsend's birth and death dates. Also names the ch. of Ira and Ann.

(Ira seems to be named after his Uncle Ira Hinsdale who moved to OxBow in northern N.Y.).

Notes	Onondaga Marriages 1835 - August 1836 Tree talks V.12 # 3, Sept 1972, pp 55, 57 HUSBAND - Ira HINSDALE Sr.-53 (Continued) Ira Hinsdale, of Camillus, and Ann Peck of Van Buren, were married at Van Buren on 30th (Dec.) 1835 instant, by the Rev. Mr. Harrington. Marr. published 13 Jan. 1836 in Onondaga Standard newspaper. See Tree Talks Vol. 12, No. 3, Sept. 1972, p. 55, 57; marriages in Onondaga Co. N.Y. from 1835 to August 1836. Copy then at Syracuse Library. The copier and arranger Mrs. Lester Myers, questioned the words the 30th instant, (which means this month) versus the word ultimate, which means last month. (The published newspaper may have been on 30 Dec. 1835, rather than 13 Jan. 1836, which would make the word instant correct. See earlier marriages same page publ. 30 Dec. 1835). Their marriage likely took place 28 Dec. 1835 as listed in Hinsdale bible & Hinsdale Geny Ira died in his 39th yr, which means age 38, not having had his birthday as yet that yr. Add her, Ira's long obit from the Religious Recorder Syracuse, N.Y. 1849. Ira Hinsdale, deceased, Letters Testamentary and Adm. Onondaga Co. NY, Bk DD, p. 7, Aug. 9, 1849. Executors were his wife Ann Hinsdale and James M. Munro. Ira didn't name his children specifically, but the will instructed that his children were to share equally, when they reached age of 21 yrs. Ira Hinsdale, Letters filed Nov. 20 1849. Bk ? BB p 228, DD p. 42, FHC Reel 873186 Onondaga Co. NY probate. Inventory filed Nov. 20 1849, Bk BB p 420, c, 2., Misc. orders & decrees, Settlement. Allen Munroe's brother was the Guardian of Ira's dau. Mary Hinsdale, as narrated in Rev. James M. Baker's book "Contending the Grade In India" on p. 26. There must be a legal document in Onondaga Co. to prove this. Uncle Jim wrote in his book that Mary didn't like her Guardian - some type of strife., that Ira was a Farmer, who owned a 600 acre homestead 6 miles from Syracuse, N.Y. (note that Ira prob. rec'd much of his land from his father David Hinsdale, judging from David's will which mentioned that Ira had rec'd his portion of his father's estate, during Ira's lifetime). What ref. ?? - p. 328. 3 March 1849 Ira and Ann Hinsdale donated Lot 68 land to the Amboy Presbyterian Church Sociey for $1. Anson Hopkins and Jonathan White paid that $1 in behalf of the Amboy Meeting House Yard. Howard Snyder (1890-1984), married Grace Hinsdale, grand daughter of Ira Hinsdale. Snyder's family History mss, corroborates that Ira donated the land for the church, and wrote that all the lumber came from Hinsdale's woods to build the church. Ira's home and the church were both built in 1845. Ira owned 160 acres of woodland. Refs: 1. Hinsdale bible in possession of Elizabeth aka Betty (Snyder) Komanecy in 1991. Betty died 2004 in Auburndale FL. Betty told me that the bible was deteriorated, it's cover was missing and the title page was missing. Komanecy's address was #128, 225C Edgewood Drive Lakeland FL 33803 in July 1991. Betty was d/o Grace (Hinsdale) Snyder; Grace was d/o Alfred L. Hinsdale who was s/o Ira Hinsdale who died 1849. 2. The Hinsdale bible gives births, deaths and marriage 28 Dec 1835 of Ira Hinsdale and his wife Ann Peck and the birth dates of their children. Also lists birth date of Charles A. Baker and marriage date to his wife Mary Hinsdale. Also lists birth date and death date of Justus Townsend, 2nd husb. of Ann (Peck) Hinsdale and their marriage date. Also lists death date and age in yrs, mo and days of Mary Hinsdale, mother of Ira. (note: Ira's mother was nee Mary McCracken). The bible then follows the children and grandchildren etc. of Ira Hinsdale and Ann Peck's son Alfred L. Hinsdale to the 1980's. 2. Ira was listed as deceased, in the 1853 will of his father David Hinsdale. David died from Tuberculosis. Since Ira died only 4 yrs earlier, I wonder if Ira had the same deadly disease. 3. In the Hinsdale Gen'y Ira was listed as #841. 4. Onondaga Standard newspaper, January 13, 1836 lists Ira's marriage on 30th Dec. 1835 See Tree Talks v12 #3, Sept 1972. (Hinsdale bible says married Dec. 28, 1835, and another ref. concurs). 5. DAR Patriot Index, p. 332, Vol. 64, p. 147; V. 81. 6. census recs: 1840 census, Onondaga Co. birth and husband and parents listed in Peck Gen'y.

Anna Peck, bom 1816, was definitely d/o Elihu Peck's wife Ruana Farnham, because Elihu and Ruana Peck sold land together in 1812, which proves marr. by 1812 or prior.

Also see Hinsdale Geny for Ann's marr. and dob.

marr. listed Hinsdale bible and Hinsdale Gen'y lists marr. 28 Dec. 1835. Tree Talks marr. taken from Onondaga Co. newspaper list marr. 30 Dec. 1835.

March 1841, Anna Hinsdale, wife of Ira Hinsdale, was served a paper as one of the eleven heirs of Elihu Peck, who died March 1841. Served by Executor Philo Peck.

I had Ann died Camillus - from what source? Amboy is in the Township of Camillus.

Justus Townsend died at his home in Ira, Jan. 1878, 5 days after Ann died. (Perhaps at home of one of his ch. by first wf).

Ann's Obit calls her of Lysander., which is in Onondaga Co. Ann's funeral was in Amboy, Onondaga Co. Justus' funeral was in Lysander.

Anna Hinsdale, wf of Ira Hinsdale, of the Town of Camillus, Onondaga Co. NY was one of eleven heirs and next of kin of Elihu Peck, when Elihu's will was presented for recording on 23 March 1841, Onondaga Co. Surrogate Court. See long listing below.

Mrs. Justus Townsend's obit names her birth yr, her father as Elihu Peck of Van Buren, Onondaga Co., name and death yr of her first husband Ira Hinsdale, the names and place of residence of all her children. Also yr that she remarried to Justus Townsend.

Special Correspondence of the Journal

Amboy, Jan. 2. On New Year's day, the funeral services of the late Mrs. Justus Townsend, of Lysander, were held from her residence at nine A.M. Solemn and impressive services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Sell, pastor of the Congregational church at Lysander, assisted by Rev. B. B. Dayton, of Amboy. Very many of the neighbors and friends were gathered to pay their last respects to the departed and to mingle their tears and sympathies with the bereaved family. Brief and appropriate services were held at the grave by Rev. B.B. Dayton, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sell.

The life of Mrs. T. deserves more than a passing notice, and is worthy of an obituary, from an abler pen than your correspondent. Hers was one of those characters made up of charity for all, with malice toward none, an even, quiet temperament, which to know was to love and admire, and which attracts all by whom it comes in contact. She was the youngest daughter of the late Elihu Peck, of Van Buren, bom in 1816, and in early life married to Ira Hinsdale, with whom hers was a life of happiness and worldly prosperity.

Mr. H. died in 1849, leaving four sons and one daughter, all young. The double parental care of whom devolved on the young widowed mother. Tenderly and faithfully did she perform her duty to her little family. One son David, survived his father but a short time. All the others survived their mother and reside as follows: Mary, wife of Charles A. Baker of Medina, Orleans Co.; Aaron Y., at Lindenville, same county; Ira, at Sedalia Mo, and Alfred L., who owns and occupies the paternal home at Amboy. Although living

In 1867, her second marriage was contracted with Justus Townsend, of Lysander, with whom the later portion of her life has been one of simple unallayed happiness, such as seldom falls to the lot of mortals. Possessed of abundance, Mr and Mrs. T. practically possessed the happy disposition so rarely found, to make use of their means for their own pleasure and for the benefit of all around them. In her death Mr. T. has lost a devoted, faithful companion, her children a loving mother, the community one whom all esteemed as a friend, the Church of Christ a most exemplary member. Her sickness was a severe and painful one, yet borne with Christian fortitude and resignation. All feel "she is not lost but gone before." The family have the sincere, heartfelt sympathy of all in this community in their sad bereavement. (Note that 2nd husb. Justus W. Townsend died 5 days after Anna). Obit of Justus Townsend Evening Albumian Auburn NY January 10 1878. We are called to chronicle the death also, of Hon. Justus Townsend, of Ira, though living just out of our town; he was frequently here, having been for many years a director of the farmer's joint stock insurance company of Meridian and one of it's trusted managers. Mr. Townsend was formerly a member of assembly from this district. A good neighbor and a christian gentleman. Bottom right reads "Sentinel". WIFE - Anna or Ann M. PECK-54

What connects Ann to her father Elihu other than Peck geny and Hinsdale geny?

Anna was definitely d/o Elihu Peck's wife Ruana Farnham, because Elihu and Ruana Peck sold land together in 1812, which proves marr. by 1812.
 Did she leave a will or probate?

CHILD 5 - Alfred Lathrop HINSDALE-1800 birth, marr, death dates from Hinsdale bible. Died Feb 27 1927 age 81 3 mo 22 days. Alfred died at his home in Amboy as did his wf Jennie. Ref: Hinsdale Geny, Hinsdale bible, desc. Betty Snyder Komenecky . He owned land on which first Syracuse airport was built in 1928, but died (stroke) before airport was completed. He stated that at age 21, he bought his siblings out, regarding their part ownership of the family homestead. This indicates ca 1866. There must be documentation of this. This was sev. yrs before his marriage. His widowed mother remarried in 1867, which impending marriage may have sparked sale of the homestead and keeping it within the Hinsdale family. Many of Alfred's desc. stayed right in Camillus NY area, which shows why rentention of land keeps offspring close by. Alfred was a Farmer, sheep, potatoes, tobacco, willows, cattle. He had hobby of being a boxer and wrestler. He was a Real Estate speculator. 1850, 1855 and 1860 census Alfred res. with his widowed mother who remarried in 1867. 1870 census, Onondaga Co NY, Alfred Hinsdale 24 yrs, farmer, Mrs. Sarah E. HUSBAND - David HINSDALE Jr.-91

David Jr. resided 1787/1790 in Galway and Ballston, now in Saratoga N.Y., as a child, was in Pompey as a teenager. ?In Camillus prior to 1806, (what source)?

Ref: census of his father, Hinsdale Genealogy. # 319 in that book.

great. grda. MaryAnn (Hinsdale) Kelly, d/o Ira Jr., lists David's marr. as 1809, acc. to her DAR papers #93688.

David Jr. buried, age 69, 3 mo, 3 days in Belle Isle Cemetery, Amboy, Twn of Camillus, on Van Buren Rd. grst. rechecked by John and Ellen Bartlett in 1987. His death date and age at death calculates to birth 24 March 1853.

David made at least 4 wills, one was in 1840; the last two in 1853 just before his death, when he wrote that he was 69 yrs old. He died from TB. All his children predeceased him. Only 2 of his 4 children had issue, Ira and Tyra. Did the children also die from TB?

His 1853 will was CONTESTED. He owned 300 acres of land.

The deponents who testified said that in the 1840 will, David's son Ira was not mentioned because he had already received his portion. The last 1853 will was made because someone in the family objected and David said that he would receive no peace on this

Notes	HUSBAND - David HINSDALE Jr.-91 (Continued) eath, if he did not revise his will. The previous will of 1853 was torn up, which also did not bequeath to the children of his deceased son Ira, and another final will was made in it's place. The last will of David Hinsdale of Tn of Camillus, Onondaga. Co. NY on 4 June 1853 appointed wf Mary and his friend John C. Munroe Esq. , as his execs. David left one third of his real estate as a LIFE ESTATE to his wife Mary, in lieu of dower. This meant that she could never sell that property. it would revert back to the two Bennet grandchildren or their heirs, when she died. She lived til 1883, so they waited a long time. David made several requests to several charities totalling $1866 dollars ; to his bro. Jonathan in IL , $200, who would need it, and made the bequest in trust, to be managed by his nephew Asahel B. Hinsdale. (Asahel B. Hinsdale was s/o David's bro. Asahel Sr.). David also left $500 to his nephew David J. or Y. Hinsdale in Jefferson Co. NY. (David's brother Ira moved to Jefferson Co. NY and had a son David Schuyler Hinsdale). I wonder why this nephew was the only nephew who rec'd a bequest in the will of David Hinsdale). David left bequests to his only grchildren, $200 each to the 4 children of his deceased son Ira , Mary, Aaron , Ira Jr., Alfred ; and the residue of his real estate and personal property to the two children of his deceased daughter Tira Bennett, ie: David A. and James O.Bennett Jr. This bequest was to go to the grandchildren when each was 21 yrs old. John C. Munroe Esq. was the trustee of the Bennett ch. and was to manage their bequest. Witn. were Crayton B. Wheeler who drew up the will and William W. Lockhart, both of Camillus. It was presented for probate July 18 1853. David Hinsdale made mention to others that he was giving more to the grand children, than would be for their own good acc. to one of the depositions when the will was contested. It is obvious that much had changed since David made his 1840 will and he had not concerned himself with his grand children in the 2nd will that the heirs did not like. Son Ira and dau. Tira Bennet both died after 1840. Son Aaron died before 1840 and dau. Mary died in her first month of life. Son Ira's wife Ann Peck may have needed help with four young children to raise. Ann's own parents were also deceased. Was Tira's husband James O. Bennett Sr. alive in 1853? They must have lived with David or close by, because one of the Bennett boys called a man to come to witness the will of his grandpa David Hinsdale. After wife Mary (McCracken) Hinsdale died, i suppose all of David Hinsdale's land went to the Bennett family. David Hinsdale's land became known later as the Bennett farm. David Jr. was Commissioner of Highways in 1819; Commissioner of Roads in June 1820 in Onon Co. NY. Online Onon Co website, source was listed as DAR Records Albany State Lib. 1790 census David's father David Sr. was listed in Galway Saratoga Co. NY, which was Albany Co at that time. 1800 census, David Hinsdale is listed in Pompey index. 1810, 1820, 1830, 1840 census. 1850 census Camillus, Onon Co NY. dwelling 495, family 513 Real Estate valued at $17,000, David Hinsdale, 66 yrs farmer., b. MA, Mary 60 or 64 yrs, b. NY, Thos. Given 26 yrs, laborer and Jane Given 23 yrs, both b. Ireland, lived with them. David or son Ira donated land for Amboy church which was built 1845. David and wife sold lot 68 in Camillus 1807. (Reck date, supposedly marr. in 1809). Onondaga Co. Deed Index Grantor List 1794-1870 1812: David Hinsdell Jr., Mary, Asahel and Hadassah, to M. CHILD 1 - Ira HINSDALE Sr.-53 Ira birth, death and marr. from Hinsdale bible and that of his wf Ann Peck. and names of their ch. Ira and Ann were married by Rev. Harrington. Marr. at Van Buren, in Tn Camillus Onon. Co. NY, died at 38 yrs. Ira Hinsdale deceased, Letters testamentary and Adm. Onondaga Co. NY, Bk DD, p. 7, Aug. 9, 1849. Exec. wife Ann Hinsdale and James M. Munro. Didn't name his children specifically, but they were to share equally when they reached age of 21 yrs. One of the Munro's was a Guardian of Ira's dau. Mary Hinsdale acc. to Rev. James M. Baker's bk "Contending the Grade In India." There must be some legal documents in Onon. Co. to prove this. Uncle Jim wrote that Mary didn't like her Guardian - some strife. Ira's occup was a Farmer, 600 acre homestead 6 mi. from Syracuse, NY. What ref. ?? - p. 328. 3 March 1849 Ira and Ann Hinsdale donated Lot 68 to Amboy Presb. Church Socy for $1 for the land. Anson Hopkins and Jonathan White paid that $1 in behalf of the Amboy Meeting House Yard. Howard Snyder Fam. Hist. mss, states that all the lumber came from Hinsdale's woods to build the church. Ira's home and the church were all built the same yr, in 1845. Ira owned 160 acres of woodland. Snyder wrote that Ira was once involved with a man who passed counterfeit money, no proof cited. Snyder (1890-1984, writer of the mss) married Grace Hinsdale, grd/o Ira Hinsdale. Refs: - Hinsdale bible in possession of Elizabeth aka Betty (Snyder) Komanecy in 1991. Betty died 2004 in Auburndale FL. Bible deteriorated, cover missing and 1st page missing. Her address was #128, 225C Edgewood Drive Lakeland FL 33803 in July 1991. Betty was d/o Grace (Hinsdale) Snyder, grd/o Alfred L. Hinsdale who was s/o Ira Hinsdale. - Bible gives births, deaths and marr. 28 Dec 1835 of Ira Hinsdale and his wf Ann Peck and the birth dates of their ch. - Gives birth date of Charles A. Baker and marr. date to Mary Hinsdale. - Gives birth date and death date of Justus Townsend 2nd husb. of Ann Peck and their marr. date. - Gives death date and age in yrs, mo and days of Mary Hinsdale, mother of ira. (note: she was nee Mary McCracken). - The bible then follows the children and grandch. etc. of Ira Hinsdale and Ann Peck's's son Alfred L. Hinsdale to the 1980's. - Ira was mentioned in the 1853 will of his father David Hinsdale as already deceased. His father died from Tuberculosis and poss. Ira and his sibs who died early, could have died from the same disease. - Hinsdale Gen'y #841.

HUSBAND - David HINSDALL Sr. RevWar-134
David seems to have been the first of the name in Onondaga Co. N.Y., surely the patriarch of those who settled in Onondaga Co. The Hinsdale/Hinsdell family bought and sold land many times in Onondaga Co.
Did David leave a will or estate?
Spelling variants Hinsdale/Hinsdell in Onondaga Co. NY.
David was born Salisbury CT acc. to DAR 93688, applic of MaryAnn (Hinsdale) Kelly, d/o Ira Hinsdale Jr. Other DAR for him is DAR 63446 and 80894.
Published bk of Onondaga Co. Cems ;
Sweet Cem. shows a pic of the grave of David Hinsdell, the only stone in good shape in 1997. This book lists his Rev. War service. In 1997, there was no road into the cem. One has to cross a ditch and open a heavy metal gate. Wf Farozina's grst is broken.
David and Farozina Hinsdell are the only Hinsdell stones there. Lucille Fleck 1951-2006 of Onondaga Co., visited the cem. and took pics of David's grst.

Notes	David first of the Hinsdells/Hinsdales in Onondaga Co. They bought & sold many properties in Onondaga Co. HUSBAND - David HINSDALL Sr. RevWar-134 (Continued) History of Western MA Lists David's father Jonathan as having settled at Lenox in 1750, but had to leave 5 yrs later because of Indian trouble. Shepard Collection FHC reel 168144 Berkshire Co MA - gives David, his parents who w/ a son and a daughter. David served in Rev. War, Pvt in Capt. Erastus Sergeants Co, Col Benj Simond's Detach of Berkshire Co. Militia, muster roll Ticonderoga Feb. 25 1777, enlist. to expire 15 March 1777, duty cutting wood; also same Co. and Detachment; enlisted 16 Dec 1776, disch 22 March 1777; service 97 days at Ticonderoga incl. 7 days (140 miles) travel home; also Capt Oliver Belding's Co, Col. John Brown's Regt, enlisted 21 Sept. 1777, disch 14 Oct 1777, service 24 days at the Northward, roll sworn to in Berkshire Co.; also Capt Josiah Yale's Co, enl. Oct 12, 1781, disch. Oct. 20, 1781, service 12 days incl. travel (160 miles) out and home, Co. marched from Lee and Lenox to Stillwater Oct. 12, 1781, by order of Brig. Gen. Rossiter on an alarm. FHC reel 873186 Onondaga Co NY David Hinsdale or Hinsdell - 1822 - latter older. BK HH pg 4. David rec'd one dollar from father Jonathan in his will, in addition to what he had already rec'd. b. Salisbury CT; to Lenox MA when he was an infant, which had been their former residence. where his sister Rhoda was b. in 1751. David res. Galway, Saratoga Co. 1787; was in Ballston 1790 census which was then in Albany Co., now in Saratoga Co.; in Pompey Feb. 1796, all in NYS. See Pompey Reunion, publ 1875, which lists David married at Lenox MA, and that his first 5 ch. were born at Lenox. Pompey Reunion reads that David grew to manhood in Lenox, Berkshire Co. MA and married there. David Hinsdale and David Hibbard settled on Pompey Hill which was orig. called Butler's Hill. Pompey Reunion bk online, I must rect my bk copy), lists David of Galway NY, purch. lot in Pompey in 1794, intending to move the next season, but his house caught on fire (In Galway?) and fam escaped wit only the clothes on their back which delayed their move. Young son Moses (16 yrs in 1794), but narrative says he 18 yrs, came first to Pompey to build a house and the family came in Sept 1796. See Dwight Bruce's Onondaga Centennial publ. 1896. Also Hinsdale Gen'y. Early Settlers of Pompey bk, lists David Hinsdell resided in Galway NY from 1787-1795, when he moved to Pompey and purchased a quarter of Lot 6. The same yr David sent son Moses, then 18 yrs, to Pompey to build a house for the family. David had 12 ch. Six of the ch. were listed in Levi Jerome's school from 1799/1800. David's homestead passed to his son Chauncey. Chauncey and Moses were the only sons who stayed ion Pompey. Moses purchased Lot 17 in 1801 from Mr. Sweet, and later added 500 acres; Moses had 10 ch. 1880 census, son Ira, the only one alive in 1880, lists his father b. MA and mother born VT. Ira res. in Pxbow, Jefferson Co. NY and a bio. about ira and his parents and gpar. was publ. in Hist. Jerrerson Co. NY. An 1880 census study by J. Humphrey of David's grandchildren, places David's first 5 ch. as born in MA. Moses was b. MA by 3 of his ch, b. CT by one of his ch, b. NY by two of his ch. Chauncey's dau. Farozina lists her father as b. MA. She was listed as b. Otisco NY, so Chauncey likely res. there awhile. Asahel's son Asahel B. listed his father as b. NY. Sally's children, 3 of them listed her as b. MA, one listed her as b. N.Y. Jonathan's ch., 2 of them listed him b. NY., David C. and Robt (who says he himself was b. IL), listed IL, so Jonathan likely res. in IL. Grace Mayer research did NOT find a Bemis fam. at Lenox at time of David's marr. to Farozina. David Hibbard also appears in Ballston NY 1790 and Hibbard was also in Galway and in Pompey 1794. See son Moses with wf Rachel Hibbard, d/o this David Hibbard. I don't know if there was any connection of Hibbard fam. to either Hinsdale or Bemis, prev. to 1790. 1790 census Ballston, Albany Co. N.Y. David Hinsdale, 1 male over 16, 4 males under 16, 3 females. 7 ch in hh total. No Bemis in Ballston 1790. 1800 census Pompey N.Y, p. 134. David Hinsdale, (sic). 1810 census Pompey David Hinsdell (sic) and also Moses Hinsdale resided in separate households. Note that there was only one David in census index. 1820 census, did i do? Note that David Sr. had to have owned this land, by purchase or by Rev. War Land Bounty in order for his heirs to own it after his death. Need to get Grantee List. Grantor Index Onon. Co. NY 1794-1870 1820: David Hinsdell to L. or T. Sweet, Bk Y, p. 207, Pompey Lot 17. 1831 heirs of David Hinsdale et al, to C. Hinsdale bk 40, p. __, Pompey, Lot 64.

CHILD 4 - David HINSDALE Jr.-91 David Jr. resided 1787/1790 in Galway and Ballston, now in Saratoga N.Y., as a child, was in Pompey as a teenager. ?In Camillus prior to 1806, (what source)? Ref: census of his father; Hinsdale Genealogy. # 319 in that book. great. grda. MaryAnn (Hinsdale) Kelly, d/o Ira Jr., lists David's marr. as 1809, acc. to her DAR papers #93688. David Jr. buried, age 69, 3 mo, 3 days in Belle Isle Cemetery, Amboy, Twn of Camillus, on Van Buren Rd. grst. rechecked by John and Ellen Bartlett in 1987. His death date and age at death calculates to birth 24 March 1853. David made at least 4 wills, one was in 1840; the last two in 1853 just before his death; when he wrote that he was 69 yrs old. He died from TB. All his children predeceased him. Only 2 of his 4 children had issue, Ira and Tyra. Did the children also die from TB? His 1853 will was CONTESTED. He owned 300 acres of land. The deponents who testified said that in the 1840 will, David's son Ira was not mentioned because he had already received his portion. The last 1853 will was made because someone in the family objected and David said that he would receive no peace on this earth, if he did not revise his will. The previous will of 1853 was torn up, which also did not bequeath to the children of his deceased son Ira, and another final will was made in it's place. The last will of David Hinsdale of Tn of Camillus, Onondaga Co. NY on 4 June 1853 appointed wf Mary and his friend John C. Munroe Esq., as his execs. David left one third of his real estate as a LIFE ESTATE to his wife Mary, in lieu of dower. This meant that she could never sell that property. it would revert back to the two Bennet grandchildren or their heirs, when she died. She lived til 1883, so they waited a long time. David made several requests to several charities totalling $1866 dollars; to his bro. Jonathan in IL, $200, who would need it, and made the bequest in trust, to be managed by his nephew Asahel B. Hinsdale. (Asahel B. Hinsdale was s/o David's bro. Asahel Sr.). David also left $500 to his nephew David J. or Y. Hinsdale in Jefferson Co. NY. (David's brother Ira moved to Jefferson Co. NY and had a son David Schuyler Hinsdale). I wonder why this nephew was the only nephew who rec'd a bequest in the will of David Hinsdale). David left bequests to his only grandchildren, $200 each to the 4 children of his deceased son Ira, Mary, Aaron, Ira Jr., Alfred; and the residue of his real estate and personal property to the two children of his deceased daughter Tira Bennett, ie: David A. and James O. Bennett Jr. This bequest was to go to the grandchildren when each was 21 yrs old. John C. Munroe Esq. was the trustee of the Bennett ch. and was to manage their bequest. Witn. were Crayton B. Wheeler who drew up the will and William W. Lockhart, both of Camillus. It was presented for probate July 18 1853. David Hinsdale made mention to others that he was giving more to the grand children, than would be for their own good acc. to one of the depositions when the will was contested. It is obvious that much had changed since David made his 1840 will and he had not concerned himself with his grand children in the 2nd will that the heirs did not like. Son Ira and dau. Tira Bennet both died after 1840. Son Aaron died before 1840 and dau. Mary died in her first month of life. Son Ira's wife Ann Peck may have needed help with four young children to raise. Ann's own parents were also deceased. Was Tira's husband James O. Bennett Sr. alive in 1853? They must have lived with David or close by, because one of the Bennett boys called a man to come to witness the will of his grandpa David Hinsdale. After wife Mary (McCracken) Hinsdale died, I suppose all of David Hinsdale's land went to the Bennett family. David Hinsdale's land became known later as the Bennett farm. David Jr. was Commissioner of Highways in 1819; Commissioner of Roads in June 1820 in Onon Co. NY. Online Onon Co website, source was listed as DAR Records Albany State Lib.

Hinsdale House pics

Jackie - Aerial photo had been on the wall in my house for as long as I can remember until my brother yanked it. I had to ask him for copies. Photo of homestead still hangs in the bedroom. I don't know who people are but it looks like 3 gen. Old lady on porch, younger woman w/ perhaps her chldrn. On the back porch is someone w/ a broom. In barn is wagon. South Onon & vicinity was a book given to Albert Ellis from A. D. ellis. I'll have to get that info for you.

Dear D.A. R. Madame;

Enclosed are separate bible records of the Baker and Hinsdale Family that were in Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y. in the early 1800's.

The Baker bible is held by Marilyn Baker Gandenberger, P.O. Box 563, Pendleton, S.C. 29670.

The Hinsdale bible is held by Betty Snyder Komanacky, #128, 225 C, Edgewood Drive, Lakeland, FL 33803, winter address.

I am submitting the pages and separate indexes with the request that they be kept with other Onondaga Co. N.Y. bible records or other Onondaga Co. records. Charles A. Baker, Mary Hinsdale, Eddie H. Baker, Charles H. Baker, James M. Baker, were all born Camillus, N.Y. Many of the Hinsdale family were born in Onondaga Co.

OBITUARY.

Died, at Amboy, in the town of Camillus, on the 26th ult., Mr. Ira Hinsdale, in the 39th year of his age.

Mr. Hinsdale was born in the town of Camillus, and here spent the most of his life. — He was a man of uncommon energy, perseverance and discretion in the transaction of his temporal affairs, and in these was a pattern worthy of imitation. Frank, generous and kind, the needy or suffering never went from his door unrelieved. He was particularly anxious for the rising generation, and regretted the existence of those vices with which they are surrounded. He was a lover of good Society, and was one of the principle founders of the Presbyterian Society, and contributed freely of his property for the erection of the house of worship, although then not a professor of religion. He afterward contributed liberally for the support of the institutions of the gospel.

To his great grief, he deferred the all important matters of the soul until a late period of his mortal existence; yet more than three months previous to his departure, (and while in the full strength of his mind, and during the visitations of the Spirit in the community—after anxious days and sleepless nights, in view of his sin,) was he seen sitting at the feet of the Saviour. And after a few weeks he sealed his undying attachment to God with his children around the table spread with the emblems of redeeming love. It was one of his fears lest his should be called a death bed repentance. As the last scenes of life were wearing away, and the King of terrors was approaching, his strength in God was more firm. Scarcely it the privilege of any to see the work of divine grace progress more rapidly than it did in him. The day but one before he died and the morning of his last, he spent in imparting his dying counsels to his family and friends, during which time hardly one individual went from his bed without a word of solemn advice from the dying man. His last few days were spent mostly in prayer, the submissive desire of his heart being that the will of God might be done. As the hour of dissolution came, with the smile of heaven on his countenance, he exclaimed, Can Lord Jesus, come quickly! and said to his friends around him, Farewell! I am going to glory—and expired.

FOR THE DIFFUSION OF KNOWLEDGE AND THE FURTHERMENT OF REFORM

SYRACUSE THURSDAY JULY 12 1849

IRA HINSDALE 26th
Amboy in the Town of Camillus on the 26th with 39th yr of his age

At a Surrogate's Court, held in and for the county of Onondaga, at the Surrogate's office, in the city of Syracuse, on the 9th day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty nine.
 Present: James T. Winand, Surrogate.

In the matter of proving the last will and testament.

Ira Hinsdale, deceased.

Onondaga County, &c. Be it Remembered, that heretofore upon the petition of James M. Munis, one of the executors named in the last will and testament of Ira Hinsdale, late of the town of Camillus, in said county, deceased, for that purpose, to the Surrogate of said county, a citation was duly issued in this matter, which citation with the proofs of service thereof, were thereafter duly returned to said Surrogate, and which said petition and citation with the proofs of service thereof, are now on file in this office of said Surrogate.

And therefore the last will and testament of the said Ira Hinsdale, deceased, with the proofs thereof were produced and are as follows, viz:

Ira Hinsdale, Farmer, of the town of Camillus, in the county of Onondaga, being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and Testament.

First, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Ann Hinsdale my Executrix, and my friend James Munis of Camillus, my Executor of this will, and if either of them shall die or refuse to serve, then the survivor, or the one that shall accept, shall possess all the powers given to them both by me in this will, or in any bequest or clause thereof.

Second, I direct my Executors and Executor to take charge of my estate both and personal, and manage and dispose of my personal property as they in the discretion of them may judge proper and for the benefit of my family. So much of my real estate as forms part of lot number fifty five in the town of Camillus and any other real estate of my own (except my home farm) or such parts thereof as my Executors and Executor, or the survivor of them may think it for the interest of my family to sell, I hereby authorize them or the survivor of them, to sell and by proper deed or deeds convey the same, for such consideration as they or the survivor of them may think proper. So much of my real estate as constitutes my home farm upon which I now reside, I do not wish to be sold until my youngest child is of age unless circumstances arise that render it highly advantageous to my family to sell it, or some part of it; and in case my Executors and Executor or the survivor of them think such circumstances have arisen, they may sell the same or any part thereof subject to the approval of my father David Hinsdale and my friends George Seddis and John Munis, all of the town of Camillus or any two of them, or if at that time there is but one of them alive, then subject to the approval of that one, which approval is to be recorded with the Deeds, or Deeds of Conveyances.

Third, It is my desire that so much of my real estate as may be assigned to my wife as her right of Dower shall be from my home farm and include my mansion house in which it now lives, and the buildings connected and convenient for the use of said house.

Fourth, After provisions shall be made for my wife's right of Dower in my estate real and personal, I hereby give and bequeath my estate real and personal to

Ind. Bus. dir. will town of Canastota, in the county of Onondaga, deceased. That this deponent was present and satisfied and did see the said Ira Hinsdale subscribe at the end thereof the instrument here produced and shown to this deponent, purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, bearing date the Third day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty nine. That the said testator at the same time declared the instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament. That thereupon this deponent and Lewis Cornell subscribed their names at the end thereof as witnesses thereto, at the request of the testator, in his presence, and that the said testator at the time of executing and publishing the said last will and testament was of full age and of sound mind and memory, not under restraint, and was in all respects competent to make a last will and testament.

Sworn this 9th day of August 1849, before me

Notes

Ira Hinsdale's birth and death date was listed in the Hinsdale Gen'y by ___, which also lists his marriage to Ann Peck, at Camillus, on 28 December, 1835.

The Hinsdale bible lists Ira's birth and death as well as his marriage on 28 Dec. 1835. The bible lists his wife Ann Peck's birth and death dates, as well as the date of Mrs. Ann P. Hinsdale's 2nd marriage date to Justus Townsend and Townsend's birth and death dates. The Hinsdale bible also names the ch. of Ira and Ann.

The bible was in possession of descendent Betty (Snyder) Komanecy until her death in 2003 or 2004. Betty gave me a copy of the Hinsdale bible pages in Lakeland Florida, in 1991. Betty said that the bible was deteriorated, cover and title page missing. Betty descended from ira's son Alfred and granddau. Grace (Hinsdale) Snyder.

(Ira seems to be named after his Uncle Ira Hinsdale who moved to OxBow in northern N.Y.).

Tree Talks Periodical, Volume 12:55,57, no.3, Sept. 1972, copy at Syracuse Library, Onondaga County, N.Y.

Marriage notices which appeared in the Onondaga Standard, a weekly Newspaper, for 835-August 1836, copied and arranged by Mrs. Lester Myers. Married in Van Buren on the 30th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Harrington, Mr. Ira Hinsdale of Camillus to Miss Ann Peck of the former place. Published 13 Jan. 1836. Mrs. Myers questioned the word instant, (this month), versus the word ultimate, (last month). The newspaper may have been published on 30 Dec. 1835, rather than 13 Jan. 1836, which would make the word instant correct. See earlier marriages listed on page 57, publ. 30 Dec. 1835. They may have married on 28 Dec. 1835, as listed in the Hinsdale bible and in Holman's Hinsdale Genealogy.

Ira died in his 39th yr, which means age 38, not having had his birthday as yet that yr.

Add here, Ira's long obit from the Religious Recorder Syracuse, N.Y. 1849.

Surrogate Court Onondaga Co. N.Y., City of Syracuse, 9th day of August 1849. Present Isaac T. Minard, Surrogate.

In the matter of proving the last will and testament of ira Hinsdale, deceased.

Onondaga County. Be it Remembered that heretofore on the petition of James M. Munro, one of the executors named in the last will and testament of ira Hinsdale, late of the town of Camillus in said county, deceased, for that purpose, to the Surrogate of said county, a citation was duly issued, in this matter, which citation with the proofs of service thereof were therefore duly returned to said Surrogate and which said petition and citation with the proofs of service thereof, are now on file in this office of said Surrogate.

And therefore the last will and testament of the said Ira Hinsdale, deceased, with the proofs thereof were produced and are as follows, viz;

I, Ira Hinsdale, Farmer, of the town of Camillus in the county of Onondaga, being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

First, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Ann Hinsdale, my Executrix, and my friend James Munro of Camillus, my Executor of this will, and if either of them shall die or refuse to serve, then the services of the one that shall accept, shall possess all the power given to them both by me in this will or in any section so claimed thereof.

Second, I direct my Executrix and Executor to take charge of my estate, real and personal, and manage and dispose of my personal property as they, or they or the survivor, may judge proper and for the benefit of my family, - so such of my real estate as forms part of lot number fifty five in the town of Camillus, and my other real estate I may own (except my home farm) or such part thereof, as my Executrix and Executor, or the survivor of them, to sell

Camillus, and my other real estate I may own (except my home farm) or such part thereof, as my Executrix and Executor, or the survivor of them, to sell and by proper deed or deeds, convey the same for such consideration as they, or the survivor of them, may think proper. So much of my real estate as constitutes my home farm upon which I now reside, I do not wish to be sold until my youngest child is of age, until circumstances arise that render it highly advantageous to my family to sell it, or some part of it, and in case my Executrix or Executor, or the survivor of them think such circumstances have arisen, they may sell the same or any part thereof subject to the approval of my father David Hinsdale and my friend George Geddes and John In_, all of the town of Camillus, or any two of them, or if at that time there is but one of them alive, then subject to the approval of that one, which approval is to be recorded with the deed or deeds of conveyances.

Third, it is my desire that so much of my real estate as may be assigned to my wife in her Right of Dower shall be from my home farm and include my mansion house in which I now live, and the buildings connected and convenient for the side of said house.

Fourth, after provisions shall be made for my wife's Right of Dower in my estate real and personal. I hereby give and bequeath my estate real and personal to my children in equal shares - and I hereby constitute and appoint my aforesaid Executor James Munro their Guardian, until they severally arrive at the age of twenty one years. I hereby direct that as they become of age that their property in the possession of their Guardian, shall be paid over to them, but I do not intend that any one of them shall be able to compile a sale of any part of my home farm or a division thereof until they are all of age, and until the youngest of them who may be living, shall be twenty one years old, the rents and profits of so much thereof as does not form the Dower of my wife, shall be paid to such of my children as are of age, annually in the proportion that they may be equally entitled, to receive the same.

Dated March third, in the year 1849.

On the first page, the words "I may own" ?intailmed before signing.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the Testator in and for his last will and testament in the presence of the undersigned, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have signed their names as witnesses thereto.

Lewis Cornell of the town of Van Buren, county of Onondaga, N.Y.

Allen Munroe's brother was the Guardian of Ira's dau. Mary Hinsdale, as narrated in Rev. James M. Baker's book "Contending the Grade In India" on p. 26. There must be Guardian documents in Onondaga Co. as to James M. Munro's reports of his handling of his Guardianship of the ch. of Ira Hinsdale.

Uncle Jim wrote in his book that Mary didn't like her Guardian - some type of strife., that Ira was a Farmer, who owned a 600 acre homestead, 6 miles from Syracuse, N.Y.

(note that Ira prob. rec'd much of his land from his father David Hinsdale Jr., judging from David's will which mentioned that Ira had rec'd his portion of his father's estate, during Ira's lifetime).

1840 census, Ira Hinsdale appeared with 11 people in family. His father David does not appear.

What ref. ?? - p. 328. 3 March 1849 Ira and Ann Hinsdale donated Lot 68 land to the Amboy Presbyterian Church Society for $1. Anson Hopkins and Jonathan White paid that $1, in behalf of the Amboy Meeting House Yard.

Howard Snyder (1890-1984), married Grace Hinsdale, grand daughter of Ira Hinsdale. Snyder's family History mss, corroborates that Ira donated the land for the church, and wrote that all the lumber used to build the church came from Hinsdale's woods. Ira's home and the church were both built in 1845. Ira owned 160 acres of woodland.

Notes

Ira Hinsdale's birth and death date was listed in the Hinsdale Gen'y by ___, which also lists his marriage to Ann Peck, at Camillus, on 28 December, 1835.

The Hinsdale bible lists Ira's birth and death as well as his marriage on 28 Dec. 1835. The bible lists his wife Ann Peck's birth and death dates, as well as the date of Mrs. Ann P. Hinsdale's 2nd marriage date to Justus Townsend and Townsend's birth and death dates. The Hinsdale bible also names the ch. of Ira and Ann.

The bible was in possession of descendent Betty (Snyder) Komanecky until her death in 2003 or 2004. Betty gave me a copy of the Hinsdale bible pages in Lakeland Florida, in 1991. Betty said that the bible was deteriorated, cover and title page missing. Betty descended from ira's son Alfred and granddau. Grace (Hinsdale) Snyder.

(Ira seems to be named after his Uncle Ira Hinsdale who moved to OxBow in northern N.Y.).

Tree Talks Periodical, Volume 12:55,57, no.3, Sept. 1972, copy at Syracuse Library, Onondaga County, N.Y.

Marriage notices which appeared in the Onondaga Standard, a weekly Newspaper, for 835-August 1836, copied and arranged by Mrs. Lester Myers. Married in Van Buren on the 30th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Harrington, Mr. Ira Hinsdale of Camillus to Miss Ann Peck of the former place. Published 13 Jan. 1836. Mrs. Myers questioned the word instant, (this month), versus the word ultimate, (last month). The newspaper may have been published on 30 Dec. 1835, rather than 13 Jan. 1836, which would make the word instant correct. See earlier marriages listed on page 57, publ. 30 Dec. 1835. They may have married on 28 Dec. 1835, as listed in the Hinsdale bible and in Holman's Hinsdale Genealogy.

Ira died in his 39th yr, which means age 38, not having had his birthday as yet that yr.

Will of Ira Hinsdale, Book I, (note the will is in Book G,H, I, not book one,) pp 228-230. p. 228.

Surrogate Court Onondaga Co. N.Y., City of Syracuse, 9th day of August 1849. Present Isaac T. Minard, Surrogate.

In the matter of proving the last will and testament of ira Hinsdale, deceased.

Onondaga County. Be it Remembered that heretofore on the petition of James M. Munro, one of the executors named in the last will and testament of ira Hinsdale, late of the town of Camillus in said county, deceased, for that purpose, to the Surrogate of said county, a citation was duly issued, in this matter, which citation with the proofs of service thereof were therefore duly returned to said Surrogate and which said petition and citation with the proofs of service thereof, are now on file in this office of said Surrogate.

And therefore the last will and testament of the said Ira Hinsdale, deceased, with the proofs thereof were produced and are as follows, viz;

I, Ira Hinsdale, Farmer, of the town of Camillus in the county of Onondaga, being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

First, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Ann Hinsdale, my Executrix, and my friend James Munro of Camillus, my Executor of this will, and if either of them shall die or refuse to serve, then the services of the one that shall accept, shall possess all the power given to them both by me in this will or in any section so claimed thereof.

Second, I direct my Executrix and Executor to take charge of my estate, real and personal, and manage and dispose of my personal property as they, or they or the survivor, may judge proper and for the benefit of my family, - so such of my real estate as forms part of lot number fifty five in the town of Camillus, and my other real estate I may own (except my home farm) or such part thereof, as my Executrix and Executor, or the survivor of them, to sell

Camillus, and my other real estate I may own (except my home farm) or such part thereof, as my Executrix and Executor, or the survivor of them, to sell and by proper deed or deeds, convey the same for such consideration as they, or the survivor of them, may think proper. So much of my real estate as constitutes my home farm upon which I now reside, I do not wish to be sold until my youngest child is of age, until circumstances arise that render it highly advantageous to my family to sell it, or some part of it, and in case my Executrix or Executor, or the survivor of them think such circumstances have arisen, they may sell the same or any part thereof subject to the approval of my father David Hinsdale and my friend George Geddes and John In..., all of the town of Camillus, or any two of them, or if at that time there is but one of them alive, then subject to the approval of that one, which approval is to be recorded with the deed or deeds of conveyances.

Third, it is my desire that so much of my real estate as may be assigned to my wife in her Right of Dower shall be from my home farm and include my mansion house in which I now live, and the buildings connected and convenient for the side of said house.

Fourth, after provisions shall be made for my wife's Right of Dower in my estate real and personal. I hereby give and bequeath my estate real and personal to

p. 229

my children in equal shares - and I hereby constitute and appoint my aforesaid Executor James Munro their Guardian, until they severally arrive at the age of twenty one years. I hereby direct that as they become of age that their property in the possession of their Guardian, shall be paid over to them, but I do not intend that any one of them shall be able to compile a sale of any part of my home farm or a division thereof until they are all of age, and until the youngest of them who may be living, shall be twenty one years old, the rents and profits of so much thereof as does not form the Dower of my wife, shall be paid to such of my children as are of age, annually in the proportion that they may be equally entitled, to receive the same.

Dated March third, in the year 1849.

On the first page, the words "I may own" ?intailmed before signing.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the Testator in and for his last will and testament in the presence of the undersigned, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have signed their names as witnesses thereto.

Lewis Cornell of the town of Van Buren, county of Onondaga, N.Y.

H.H. Burch, of the town of Camillus.

Onondaga Surrogate Court in the matter of proving the last will and testament of Ira Hinsdale, deceased.

On 9 August 1849, Lewis Cornell deposed before Surrogate Isaac T. Minard, that he and Henry H. Burch witnessed the said deceased Ira Hinsdale sign the instrument produced on third of March 1849.

p. 229 & 230.

On 9 August 1849, Henry H. Burch, deposed likewise, before the same Surrogate.

Onondaga Co. Surrogate Office: Recorded the preceeding last will and testament of Ira Hinsdale, deceased, as a will of real and personal estate which record is hereby signed and certified by me pursuant to the provisions of the Revised Statutes, this 9th day of August 1849. Allen Munroe's brother was the Guardian of Ira's dau. Mary Hinsdale, as narrated in Rev. James M. Baker's book "Contending the Grade In India" on p. 26. There must be Guardian documents in Onondaga Co. as to James M. Munro's reports of his handling of his Guardianship of the ch. of Ira Hinsdale.

Uncle Jim wrote in his book that Mary didn't like her Guardian - some type of strife., that Ira was a Farmer, who owned a 600 acre homestead, 6 miles from Syracuse, N.Y.

(note that Ira prob. rec'd much of his land from his father David Hinsdale Jr., judging from David's will which mentioned that Ira had rec'd his portion of his father's estate, during Ira's lifetime).

1840 census, Ira Hinsdale appeared with 11 people in family. His father David does not appear.

What ref. ?? - p. 328. 3 March 1849 Ira and Ann Hinsdale donated Lot 68 land to the Amboy Presbyterian Church Society for $1. Anson Hopkins and Jonathan White paid that $1, in behalf of the Amboy Meeting House Yard.

Howard Snyder (1890-1984), married Grace Hinsdale, grand daughter of Ira Hinsdale. Snyder's family History mss, corroborates that Ira donated the land for the church, and wrote that all the lumber used to build the church came from Hinsdale's woods. Ira's home and the church were both built in 1845. Ira owned 160 acres of woodland.

Obit: Father Elihu's estate 1841 naming her husb Jm Hinsdale

Syracuse Daily Journal , January 3 1878.
Town News Western Onondaga.

Amboy, Jan. 2. On NY Day, the funeral services of the late Mrs. Justus Townsend, of Lysander, were held from her residence at nine AM. Solemn and impressive services were conducted by Rev. Mr. ?Sell, pastor of Congregational church at Lysander, assisted by Rev. ?B. B. Dayton, of Amboy. Very many of the neighbors and friends were gathered to pay their last respects to the departed and to mingle their __ and sympathies with the bereaved family. Brief and appropriate services were held at the grave by Rev. ?B.B. Dayton, assisted by Rev. Mr. ?Sell or Sill.

The life of Mrs. T. deserves more than a passing notice, and is worthy of an obituary, from an abler pen than your correspondent. Hers was one of those characters made up of charity for all, with malice toward none, an even, quiet temperament, which to know was to love and admire, and which attracts all by whom it comes in contact. She was the youngest daughter of the late Elihu Peck, of Van Buren, born in 1816, and in early life married to Ira Hinsdale, with whom hers was a life of happiness and worldly prosperity.

Mr. H. died in 1849, leaving four sons and one daughter, all young. The double parental care of whom devolved on the young widowed mother. Tenderly and faithfully did she perform her duty to her little family. One son David, survived his father but a short time. All the others survived their mother and reside as follows: Mary, wife of Charles A. Baker of Medina, Orleans Co.; Aaron Y., at Lindonville, (sic), same county; Ira, at Sedalia MO, and Alfred L., who owns and occupies the paternal home at Amboy. Although living so far away, all were permitted to attend their mother in her sickness, and to be present at her burial.

In 1867 , her second marriage was contracted with Justus Townsend, of Lysander, with whom the later portion of her life has been one of simple unallayed happiness, such as seldom falls to the lot of mortals. Possessed of abundance, Mr and Mrs. T. practically possessed the happy disposition so rarely found, to make use of their means for their own pleasure and for the benefit of all around them. In her death Mr. T. has lost a devoted, faithful companion, her children a loving mother, the community one whom all esteemed as a friend, the Church of Christ a most exemplary member.

Her sickness was a severe and painful one, yet borne with Christian fortitude and resignation. All feel "she is not lost but gone before." The family have the sincere, heartfelt sympathy of all in this community in their sad bereavement.

(Note that 2nd husb. Justus W. Townsend died 5 days after Anna).

Anna was definitely d/o Elihu Peck's wife Ruana Farnham , because Elihu and Ruana Peck sold land together in 1812, which proves marr. by 1812.

Did Anna leave a will or probate?

1850 census Camillus Onon Co. NY, Ann Hinsdale (sic), head of household, 34 yrs, owned $20, 000 Real Estate, b. NY, Mary 13 yrs, Aaron 11, Ira 7, Alfred, 5 yrs, all b. NY. Also Henry Burch 36 yrs, Laborer b. NY. She was listed between Charles B. Fish and Wm Smith families. Christopher Townsend fmily was a neighbor.

The Havana correspondent of the Mobile Courier says that there is a thriving business doing in the African line, on that island, as if the speculators at all hazards were determined to make the most of the little time remaining to them. Five cargoes were delivered in the last two weeks of January. The preparations for the shipment of coolies are also very large, and upwards of fifty thousand will be introduced in the course of a few years, if they can be kidnapped or seduced from their homes.

The local editor of the Buffalo Express has just been through the mill of a lawsuit where the claim embraced four or more figures, but the jury raised it to $25. Considering the magnitude of the claim, the defendant thinks he has come out at least even, if not a length ahead.

Mr. Edward Seagraves, a well known fancy cassimere manufacturer, has been connected by public rumor with these failures, but we understand that his only liability is as endorser, for which he will be protected. The mill at Auburn is not a sufferer, the operations of Mr. Harris being on his private account."

plied by our new mail carrier, who is promptly on time. By the way, we received by to-day's mail the Weekly Journal from your city, with the Governor's message in; this is rather stale news for us, as we read it in full in the AUBURNIAN, one week ago to-day."

This town has again lost one of its aged and most respected inhabitants, Chester Morly, who had lived to the good old age of nearly 79 years.

Mr. Morley came to Onondaga county from Connecticut, when ten years old, and for the last forty-five years has lived in this town. He retired from his farm fourteen years ago and removed to this village. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and died in the faith. Three sons and a daughter survive him.

We are called to chronicle the death also, of Hon. Justus Townsend, of Ira, though living just out of our town; he was frequently here, having been for many years a director of the farmer's joint stock insurance company of Meridian, and one of its trusted managers. Mr. Townsend was formerly a member of assembly from this district. A good neighbor and a christian gentleman.

WESTERN ONONDAGA.

Special Correspondence of The Journal.

AMBOY, January 2.—On New Year's day the funeral obsequies of the late Mrs. Justus Townsend, of Lyrauder, were held from her late residence, at half past nine o'clock A. M. Solemn and impressive services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Brill, pastor of the Congregational church of Lyrauder, assisted by Rev. B. B. Dayton, of Amboy. Very many of the neighbors and friends were gathered to pay their last respects to the departed and to mingle their tears and sympathies with the bereaved family. Brief and appropriate services were held at the grave by Rev. B. B. Dayton, assisted by Rev. Mr. Brill.

The life of Mrs. T. ^{deserves} more than a passing notice, and is worthy of an obituary, from an ^{able pen} ^{more} than that of your correspondent. Here was one of those characters made up of charity for all, with ^{malice} ^{quiet} ^{temperament} ^{to} ^{was} ^{attracts} ^{the} love and admire, and which attracts all by whom it comes in contact. She was the youngest daughter of the late Eliza Peck, of Van Buren, born in 1816, and in early life married to Ira

Steves, Charles W. d. June 20, 1880 (was 1860, see below), ae. 62

From Bill Ruddock, 20 December 2005

Charles W. was alive and well, living in Geddes in 1870. He was 52 years old, a retired farmer.. See 1870 U.S. Census, Geddes, Onondaga Co., N.Y., p. 100.

In fact, Charles W., age 62, was still living on 8 June 1880 when the 1880 U.S. Census was taken, (See 1880 U.S. Census, Geddes, E.D. 174, p. 21).

I believe that the real death date for Charles W. is probably 20 June 1880 and this date matches with the death date given in the "Cemetery Transcriptions from the NEHGS Manuscript Collections" database.

Dear Jacqueline:

When we received your letter back we went over to Belle Isle Cemetery to verify the dates in question.

[David Hinsdale d: June 27, 1853 ae: 69y3m3d, we doubled checked the stone because as you mentioned 3 & 8 look similar after many years of aging]

[David B. Hinsdale s. of Ira & Ann d: 2/26/1850 ae: 89y6m]

OUR RATES ARE $5.00 Per hour: Photocopies @ $.25 each

We have spent time this past week viewing six of the cemeteries in the Town of Camillus. We also checked out one other one in the Town of Van Buren. We have also spent time at the library. All together we have 4 hours research time. I feel we have been quite successful and think you will be pleased with what we have found. If you would like copies of our research work on the items you were interested in please forward a money order for $20.00 to cover our research time.

We have found the following.

1. Mary McCrackens father & mother (with maiden name)

Plus more on this family.

2. Ruana (Ruany) Farnaham's death date and where buried also her father's name.

3. Elihu Peck's burial place, plus children of same with spouses and dates.

4. Have not found Enos father of Elihu yet but still working on this.

5. Enos Peck & wife Annis burial Place & dates.

* 6. Info on James M. Baker. & his 2 wives (Mary & Mary) children etc.

Ellen & I normally concentrate our efforts in 4 county area in eastern New York, namely Warren, Washington, Saratoga, & Essex Counties but because of our home base location and the vast information available to us through the Syracuse library we find ourselves doing more research here in Onondaga County.

Sincerely:

John Bartlett

John F. Lamson of said town of Van Buren subscribed their names at the end thereof as witnesses thereto at the request of the testator in due presence. And that the said testator at the time of executing and publishing the said last will and testament was of full age and of sound mind and memory, not under restraint, and was in all respects competent to make a last will and testament. And this deponent further says that immediately after the execution of said will it was delivered by the said testator to this deponent and remained in his custody until the 22nd day of March last, when he delivered it to Phil Peck one of the executors in said will named for the purpose of presenting the same to the Surrogate for probate.

Subscribed this 5th day of April 1841 before me?

James F. McDonald, Surrogate.

Peter Peck

Grace, & JustinAsa Crossman is the husband

NA
 The Asa Cross will is negative. He was b. ca 1813, made his will at age 40 in 1853. He had wf Catharine A. and ch. James B.A., Mary Catharine and Ann Eliza. probated 5 Nov 1853. He is a bit young to be ~~husb. of Sarah² Baker~~. BUT note the James B. son. I figure only a slight poss. that he had Baker as a 1st wf. Perh. 1850 census would tell us where he was b. and where son James was b.

Joseph² Baker will does not name his ch., only wf Abigail. He made will 21 Aug 1871 probated 7 Oct 1878. Witn. Tim W. Skinner and John Brechamber. Altho. he named his wf as his exec., she d. in 1878 just before the probate and son Lyman S. Baker was the exec. in 1878 when probated in Mexico Village Oswego co. NY.

Joseph's son Zelick Wm Baker³ made will 15 March 1859. On 18 May, wf Aurelia A. brought will for proving New Haven Oswego Co. Probated in Mexico 14 June 1859. Witn. Wm O. Gile and Ephraim Lord (whom we know was Zelick's bro in law).

In Zelick's will wf is called Aurilla. Names ch. Sarah Maria, Wm Henry, Joreme Elmer, James Edward. No surprises there, but son was called Jerome on census. He gives $25 to each of his par. Joseph and Abigail. (Nice touch for proving lineage).

Ira Hinsdale's 1849 will Bk I, (not bk 1) does not name his ch. Names wf Ann and Guardian for his ch. was friend James M. Munro.

David Hinsdale's will Bk J. pp 142-145 is more interesting, altho difficult to read and not much better when zeroxed darker. Will is dated 14 June and looks like 1852; but witness Wheeler calls it 1853, so there must be a stroke of the pen missing here. He was 69 yrs old, had TB.

He had a will made in 1840 which witness Wheeler used as a guide to make a will for David May 28, 1853. Somehow, someone overheard, or Wheeler or Lockwood, the witnesses, told what was in the will, because David heard repercussions abt it the very next morning. I suspect that none of Ira's ch. were given bequests in that May 28 will. Whatever was in it, it was distressing to someone, perhaps wf Mary.

Wheeler burned the May 28 will in front of David and made a new will on 14 June, just 2 wks before his June 27 death.

The Hinsdale geny gives his ch. as Ira, Tira, Mary, Aaron. In 1853, all his ch. were dead. Aaron prob. had no issue, died as a young man. It was customary for the eldest son to receive a double portion. Ira had received his portion when he was alive and apparently David considered it ample. Girls usually received a lesser bequest than all sons, prob. because they might be expected to benefit from parents of their husbands. Tira's 2 Bennett sons, as her heirs should rightly receive less than Ira represented by his heirs. I dont know when Tira's husb. James O. Bennett Sr. died. So, it must have been a surprise when the Bennett boys, thru Trustee John C. Munro, received abt 200 acres of land and were to get their grmother Mary's 100 acres, her 1/3 life estate when Mary died. (They had to wait 30 more yrs for Mary to die. Mary could not sell any of that land to anyone). It would seem that none of David's land had ever been in the McCracken family or Mary would have been able to retain it.

Ira's ch. received $200 each at age 21. I dont know how much an acre of land cost in 1853.

~~I had thought that Peter B. Hinsdale of whom some of his ch. were buried in same cem. with David and Mary, was prob. a son of David. There is no mention of any grch. by Peter. In the Hinsdale Geny, there is NO PETER in the entire bk. See back of Hinsdale Geny - not related at all.~~

James M. Munro was Guardian for Ira's ch. per his 1849 will. Note that James M. Munro was the one who seems to have asked for an accounting of the way the last 2 wills were handled, by having Wheeler and Lockwood cross examined by lawyer B. Davis Noxin, 25 July. I dont know how a person who draws up a will for another, could also be a witness, but that was not questioned.

Bro. Jonathan must have been needy. I ckd the Hinsdale Geny and Asahel Jr. was in IL. He was s/o Asahel Sr., who was bro. of David and Jonathan.

Less clear is why nephew David Hinsdale of Jeff. Co. was named. I think he must have been David Schuyler Hinsdale, s/o Ira who was David's brother who moved to Oxbow in St. Lawrence Co. It was hard to tell if his middle name was Y, J. or S. in the will.

It is entirely possible that the ENTIRE last will was not read to David. Wife Mary was certainly aware that the last will was being made, but was not privy to the contents of that will.

David prob. wasn't well enough to read it.
Each of Ira's ch. were named (good for us for proof).

It is possible that David was influenced to give to some charities, on the basis that his grch. had more than enough for their needs. His bequests to charity totalled $1866 plus the interest on the $366 bond/mort. That 1866 would be like 18 or 19 thousand dollars today. If any in the family were in need, that would rankle. Otherwise, David's personality was one that didn't believe in family opulence.

Uncle Jim mentioned in his bk that Mary Hinsdale Baker did not like her Guardian Munro, so there must have been problems. Of course, this will was made before Mary's m. to Baker.

Alfred ended up with Ira's homestead, supposedly buying out his siblings. It looks in pics like a goodly acreage, but Alfred may have added to it during his lifetime. When Ann Peck remarried, she prob. had no right to it if she also had only a life estate, as was the custom.

Was David so rich that he thought ^{wife} Mary would never be in financial need. He prob. didn't figure that she would live into her 90's. She must have been a strong, healthy woman. Wonder if she had TB? Dont know how anyone in a household could avoid it.

Looking at Munro fam. in Among the hills of Camillus, David Munro and Abigail Carpenter had John C(arpenter). b. 1809 and James M(adison) b. 1813. So, it looks as tho the Guardian James M. and the Trustee John C. were brothers. John C. m. Emily Bennett. James M. m. Anna Sherwood. These 2 Munro's were nephews of Betsy Munro who m. Tim Brown of Grace Baker Mayer and Bob White's line.

Found an item from Newtown Long Isl. NY wherein Thos. Pettit divorced is wf Sarah in 11 Oct. 1672. Gee, wonder if that Sarah was the one who m. our Thos. Skillman?? There doesn't seem to be good proof of the parent of the Sarah Pettit who m. Skillman. I have never seen that divorce before. Seems like it must be Thos. Jr.

Love,

Jackie

the 60 yr old David. Alda still resided, as a widow, in Ashtabula in 1900 census, although she had visited the James O. Bennett's in Onondaga Co.

Note that Amboy was in Town of Camillus.

The younger son, James O. Bennett Jr., (1837-1914), moved back and forth between Amboy, Onondaga Co. and NY City, but was in Amboy, Onondaga Co. in his last yrs. He resided near his McCracken and Hinsdale relatives.

James Jr. had only one child, a son Charles Hinsdale Bennett, who had two children who were both in Amboy in 1930 census.

btw, I think most of you know that Ira's son Alfred L. Hinsdale ended up with father Ira's homestead.

Jackie

I suppose the Bennett's received all of David Hinsdale's land. Ira's children were also all minors when David Hinsdale made his will in 1853.

Anna Beck Hinsdale wd of Ira was also orphaned by 1841, but she was already married

Subject: Hinsdale Family

I have been searching that newspaper website that I shared with all of you. Thought you might like to read a saga abt our David Hinsdale Jr. and his wife Mary McCracken line.

David made at least 4 wills. All of his children predeceased him. Apparently, the only grandchildren he liked were his 2 grch. David A. and James O. Bennett by his dau. Tyra Hinsdale.

David omitted his son, our ancestor Ira Hinsdale, in his first will in 1840, because Ira already had his portion. Ira then up and died in 1849 at 39 yrs of age.

David owned 300 acres land.

David must have been ill in 1853 because he made a 3rd will, shortly before he died, which his family did not like, omitting his 4 grch. by Ira. Ira's widow Ann (Peck) Hinsdale had a difficult financial time in her widowhood, according to her obit many yrs later. David made a fourth will, the second one written in 1853, when he added the deceased Ira Hinsdale's ch, which included our own Mary (Hinsdale) Baker. David wrote that he would not have any peace on earth if he didn't change his will. (That sounds as tho his wf Mary was influencing him).

David had only 6 grch – 4 of Ira's ch and 2 of dau. Tyra Bennett's ch.

In the last will, Ira's 4 ch each rec'd $200, the remainder went to the 2 Bennett grch David A. and James O. Jr., who were still minors. Wife Mary (McCracken)Hinsdale was to get a one third life estate, and after Mary's death the Bennett ch. were to get Mary's share.

Mary(McCr) Hinsdale lived 30 more yrs as a widow, dying in 1883.. (I have her beat as a wd).

We pretty well know the life of our Mary (Hinsdale) Baker and her sibs, but I didn't know what happened to the Bennett children until now, from newspaper items.

Tyra (Hinsdale) Bennett died 1845 in Onondaga Co. NY. Her husb. James O. Bennett Sr. moved on to Syracuse, and in 1848 started a business in partnership with his brother David S. Bennett and another man. The business was Produce by Commission only. There were three branches, one in Syracuse, one in Buffalo and one in NY City. James took the NY City branch, his brother David S. Bennett took the B'flo branch. The third man must have taken the Syracuse branch.

By 1850 JamesO. Bennett Sr was remarried and residing in NY City with his 2 Bennett sons. They were all together there in 1860 census, also. James Sr and wf were still in NY City in 1870 and James Sr. died in 1876, perhaps there..

The eldest son, David A. Bennett, received a deed of land in 1870 from the executors of his grpa David Hinsdale's estate, who were John C. Munro and Mary (McCr) Hinsdale. This was 17 yrs after grpa died. I couldn't find David in 1870 and 1880 census. Abt 1894, David had a stroke and some paralysis. He seems to have resided in Ashtabula Ohio for a time. David appeared in the news in Nov. 1897 at age 60 when he disappeared while walking to his brother James' house in Amboy, Onondaga Co. NY. He was 5 ft, 4 inches tall, weighed less than 100 lbs. He had a gray beard, closely trimmed. He was found dead in the woods, by a hunter, several days later. He was a soldier in Civil War.

No children survived David. He may have had a much younger wife Alda, or a widowed dau. in law, in Ashtabula OH.

Alda, Mrs. David A. Bennett, was more likely, wd of David A. Bennett Jr., because she was 29 yrs younger than

Grace,

The Asa Cross will is negative. He was b. ca 1813, made his will at age 40 in 1853. He had wf Catharine A. and ch. James B.A., Mary Catharine and Ann Eliza. probated 5 Nov 1853. He is a bit young to be husb. of Sarah² Baker, BUT note the James B. son. I figure only a slight poss. that he had Baker as a 1st wf. Perh. 1850 census would tell us where he was b. and where son James was b.

Joseph² Baker will does not name his ch., only wf Abigail. He made will 21 Aug 1871 probated 7 Oct 1878. Witn. Tim W. Skinner and John Brechamber. Altho. he named his wf as his exec., she d. in 1878 just before the probate and son Lyman S. Baker was the exec. in 1878 when probated in Mexico Village Oswego co. NY.

Joseph's son Zelick Wm Baker³ made will 15 March 1859. On 18 May, wf Aurelia A. brought will for proving New Haven Oswego Co. Probated in Mexico 14 June 1859. Witn. Wm O. Gile and Ephraim Lord (whom we know was Zelick's bro in law).

In Zelick's will wf is called Aurilla. Names ch. Sarah Maria, Wm Henry, Joreme Elmer, James Edward. No surprises there, but son was called Jerome on census. He gives $25 to each of his par. Joseph and Abigail. (Nice touch for proving lineage).

Ira Hinsdale's 1849 will Bk I, (not bk 1) does not name his ch. Names wf Ann and Guardian for his ch. was friend James M. Munro.

David Hinsdale's will Bk J. pp 142-145 is more interesting, altho difficult to read and not much better when zeroxed darker. Will is dated 14 June and looks like 1852; but witness Wheeler calls it 1853, so there must be a stroke of the pen missing here. He was 69 yrs old, had TB.

He had a will made in 1840 which witness Wheeler used as a guide to make a will for David May 28, 1853. Somehow, someone overheard, or Wheeler or Lockwood, the witnesses, told what was in the will, because David heard repercussions abt it the very next morning. I suspect that none of Ira's ch. were given bequests in that May 28 will. Whatever was in it, it was distressing to someone, perhaps wf Mary.

Wheeler burned the May 28 will in front of David and made a new will on 14 June, just 2 wks before his June 27 death.

The Hinsdale geny gives his ch. as Ira, Tira, Mary, Aaron. In 1853, all his ch. were dead. Aaron prob. had no issue, died as a young man. It was customary for the eldest son to receive a double portion. Ira had received his portion when he was alive and apparently David considered it ample. Girls usually received a lesser bequest than all sons, prob. because they might be expected to benefit from parents of their husbands. Tira's 2 Bennett sons, as her heirs should rightly receive less than Ira represented by influenced

his heirs. I dont know when Tira's husb. James O. Bennett Sr. died. So, it must have been a surprise when the Bennett boys, thru Trustee John C. Munro, received abt 200 acres of land and were to get their grmother Mary's 100 acres, her 1/3 life estate when Mary died. (They had to wait 30 more yrs for Mary to die. Mary could not sell any of that land to anyone). It would seem that none of David's land had ever been in the McCracken family or Mary would have been able to retain it.

Ira's ch. received $200 each at age 21. I dont know how much an acre of land cost in 1853.

NO I had thought that Peter B. Hinsdale of whom some of his ch. were buried in same cem. with David and Mary, was prob. a son of David. There is no mention of any grch. by Peter. In the Hinsdale Geny, there is NO PETER in the entire bk.

James M. Munro was Guardian for ^{Hinsdale} Ira's ch. per his 1849 will. Note that James M. Munro was the one who seems to have asked for an accounting of the way the last 2 wills were handled, by having Wheeler and Lockwood cross examined by lawyer B. Davis Noxin, 25 July. I dont know how a person who draws up a will for another, could also be a witness, but that was not questioned.

DAVID'S in will Bro. Jonathan must have been needy. I ckd the Hinsdale Geny and Asahel Jr. was in IL. He was s/o Asahel Sr., who was bro. of David and Jonathan.

Less clear is why nephew David Hinsdale of Jeff. Co. was named. I think he must have been David Schuyler Hinsdale, s/o Ira who was David's brother who moved to Oxbow in St. Lawrence Co. It was hard to tell if his middle name was Y, J. or S. in the will.

It is entirely possible that the ENTIRE last will was not read to David. Wife Mary^{mc} was certainly aware that the last will was being made, but was not privy to the contents of that will.

David prob. wasn't well enough to read it.

* Each of Ira's ch. were named (good for us for proof). (many)

It is possible that David was influenced to give to some charities, on the basis that his grch. had more than enough for their needs. His bequests to charity totalled $1866 plus the interest on the $366 bond/mort. That $1866 would be like 18 or 19 thousand dollars today. If any in the family were in need, that would rankle. Otherwise, David's personality was one that didn't believe in family opulence.

Uncle Jim mentioned in his bk that Mary Hinsdale Baker did not like her Guardian Munro, so there must have been problems. Of course, this will was made before Mary's m. to Baker.

Alfred ended up with Ira's homestead, supposedly buying out his siblings. It looks in pics like a goodly acreage, but Alfred may have added to it during his lifetime. When Ann Peck remarried, she prob. had no right to it if she also had only a life estate, as was the custom.

Was David so rich that he thought Mary would never be in financial need. He prob. didn't figure that she would live into her 90's. She must have been a strong, healthy woman. Wonder if she had TB? Dont know how anyone in a household could avoid it.

Looking at Munro fam. in Among the Hills of Camillus, David Munro and Abigail Carpenter had John C(arpenter). b. 1809 and James M(adison) b. 1813. So, it looks as tho the Guardian James M. and the Trustee John C. were brothers. John C. m. Emily Bennett. James M. m. Anna Sherwood. These 2 Munro's were nephews of Betsy Munro who m. Tim Brown of Grace Baker Mayer and Bob White's line.

Found an item from Newtown Long Isl. NY wherein Thos. Pettit divorced is wf Sarah in 11 Oct. 1672. Gee, wonder if that Sarah was the one who m. our Thos. Skillman?? There doesn't seem to be good proof of the parent of the Sarah Pettit who m. Skillman. I have never seen that divorce before. Seems like it must be Thos. Jr.

David Hinsdale Jr. resided as a child 1787/1790 in Galway and Ballston, NY which is now in Saratoga N.Y.
 David resided in Pompey Onondag Co. NY as a teenager.
 David ?Was in Camillus prior to 1806, (what source)?
 Refs: census of his father; Hinsdale Genealogy. # 319 in that book.

Great. grand dau. MaryAnn (Hinsdale) Kelly, d/o Ira Jr. , lists David Hinsdale's marriage as 1809, in her D.A.R. papers #93688.

David's gravestone is fairly tall , one side reads: DAVID HINSDALE Died June 27 1853 AGED 69 years, 3 mo's, 3 days, buried in Belle Isle Cemetery, Amboy, Town of Camillus, on Van Buren Rd. I have picture of grstone taken 1987 and it was also rechecked by John and Ellen Bartlett in 1987. David's death date and age at death calculates to his birth being 24 March 1784. David's wife appears on the opposite side of David's grstone which reads:
 MARY McCracken WIFE OF David HINSDALE DIED APR 7 1883 93 yrs, (the rest of the epitaph is unreadable in photo I have, but photo taker reported that it read 93 yrs & 4 mo's.).
 A photo I have has an epitaph on the side also. I suspect there were epitaphs on all 4 sides and the stone must have been erected for all 4 of them all at the same time.

David died at age 69 from TB. All his children predeceased him. Only 2 of his 4 children had issue, Ira and Tyra. David owned 300 acres of land when he died. David gave $1866 to charity).

David made at least 4 wills, the first known was in 1840. The deponents who testified in the probate, said that in the 1840 will, David's son Ira was not mentioned because he had already received his portion in his lifetime. Ira was alive in 1840.

David's last will 14 June 1853 was made because someone in the family objected to the will he made in May 1853. David said that he would receive no peace on this earth if he did not revise his will. The May 1853 will was torn up, which also did not bequeath to the children of his deceased son Ira. (Son Ira's wife Ann (Peck) Hinsdale was left with small children to support).

The last will of David Hinsdale of Township of Camillus, Onondaga. Co. NY on 14 June 1853 appointed his wife Mary and his friend John C. Munroe Esq. , as his executors.

David left one third of his real estate as a LIFE ESTATE to his WIFE MARY, in lieu of dower. (This meant that she could never sell that property). Her third would revert back to the two Bennet grandchildren or their heirs, when Mary died. (Mary lived til 1883, so they waited a long time).

David bequested to his brother Jonathan in IL , $200, and made the bequest in trust, to be managed by his nephew Asahel B. Hinsdale. (Asahel B. Hinsdale was s/o David's bro. Asahel Sr.).

David also left $500 to his nephew David Y. or S. Hinsdale in Jefferson Co. N.Y. (David's brother Ira moved to Jefferson Co. NY and had a son David Schuyler Hinsdale). I wonder why this nephew was the only nephew who rec'd a bequest in the will of David Hinsdale).

David left bequests to his only grandchildren, $200 each to the 4 children of his deceased son Ira , MARY, Aaron , Ira Jr., and Alfred Hinsdale; the residue of his real estate and personal property to the two children of his deceased daughter Tira Bennett, ie: David A. and James O.Bennett Jr. The bequests were to go to all of the grandchildren when each was 21 yrs old. John C. Munroe Esq. was appointed trustee for the Bennett children who were minors and was to manage their bequest.

were minors and was to manage their bequest.

(Note that grandsons David Bennett was b. 1837; James Bennet was born 1839. They would become 21 yrs in 1858 and 1860. Their mother Tira predeceased her father David, in 1845. Tira's husband James O. Bennett Sr. was alive in 1853. The Bennett grand children must have lived with or close to David, because one of the Bennett boys went to Lockwood to witness the will of his grandpa David Hinsdale).

However, see New York NY census 1850 and 1860, James Bennett and his sons David A. and James O. Bennett. James Sr. had a 2nd wf Sarah. Perhaps one of the bennett boys was visiting his gparents in summer of 1853.
Note that only James O. Bennett Jr. resided in Onondaga Co. in later years. James Jr did not live with grandma Mary (McCracken) Hinsdale in 1870).

It is obvious that much had changed since David Hinsdale made his 1840 will. Son Aaron died 1836, no issue. Dau. Tira Bennett died in 1845 and son Ira died in 1849. Son Ira's wife, Ann Peck, may have needed help with raising four young children. Ann's own parents were also deceased.

After wife Mary (McCracken) Hinsdale died, I suppose all of David Hinsdale's land went to the Bennett family. David Hinsdale's land became known later as the Bennett farm. Son Ira's son Alfred bought out his siblings for the land that Ira had when he died.

Witnesses were Crayton B. Wheeler who drew up the will and William W. Lockhart, both of Camillus. It was presented for probate July 18 1853. Crayton deposed that David died about 27th June 1853.

David Hinsdale made mention that he was giving more to the grand children, than would be for their own good as deposed by Crayton.

July 25 1853. Parties appeared as before & B. Davis Noxin as counsel for James M. ?Monroe Guardian, & Crayton B. Wheeler called as a witness by Executor sworn says, I am one of the subscribing witnesses to the will of David Hinsdale deceased & reside at Camillus in Onondaga Co. N. Y. I witnessed the will on the day it purports to have been executed June 14 1853. I signed the will at his request as a witness. I saw David Hinsdale sign his name to the will opposite the seal. David Hinsdale declared this instrument to be his last will and testament to me and to Mr. Lockwood, the other witness, who was also present at the signing. I signed as a witness in the presence of David Hinsdale deceased. Mr. Hinsdale seemed to be sound in mind & memory when he executed the will as far as I could observe. I thought his mind very clear & thought him very capable of transacting this business.

Cross Examined by Mr. Noxin I have known Mr. Hinsdale since I was a boy - 25 years. lived 2 and a half miles from him most of that time. He had been confined about a month before the will was executed. I have drawn two wills for him including this, the other was on the 28th day of May. I drew this will the same day it was executed & under his direction entirely as to its substance & just before it was executed. He was pretty sick, he had the consumption, he was weak in body. I BELIEVE HE DIED ABOUT THE LAST OF JUNE ABOUT THE 27th. No one was present when I drew the will but Mr. Hinsdale & myself. I think I was there about two hours the 14th of June, talked considerably with him. When the will was executed I asked Mr. Hinsdale if he declared that instrument to be his last will & testament & he said he did. I cant tell whether I asked him at the same time if he wished Mr. Lockwood & me to sign as witnesses, but he desired us both to sign as witnesses. He had signed the will when I asked him to declare the instrument to be his last will and testament. Mr. Lockwood & myself were both present. I read the will to Mr. Hinsdale but I cant say that Mr. Lockwood was present at the time. I had conversation with him before I drew the will. Mr. Hinsdale remarked to me. "I have sent for you again, the contents of the other will you drew for me were known by some means before the next morning. I told him I had not divulged the contents of the will, then he said "unless I make a different will I shall not have any peace in this world at least. He said I want you to take this will & burn it up before me and I did so burn it in his presence. I think that Mrs. Hinsdale got this other will & gave to me. I think that was burnt before I drew this, it was then or just after I finished drawing this. I meant that he was quite weak when I say he was sick. I think that was about all. I dont think he was in pain except when he expectorated. I had not divulged the particulars of the will. I think he said he thought it was overheard when it was drawn. MRS. HINSDALE WAS NOT IN WHEN I DREW THE LAST WILL & _ & she did not converse about it together in my presence. Mr. Hinsdale did not say that he told the contents of the first will.

Re Direct:: I think that after we had all signed the will that I read over the attesting clause to Mr. Hinsdale. On the 28th day of May Mr. Hinsdale and I had some conversation IN REGARD TO THE CHILDREN OF HIS SON IRA. HE TOLD ME THAT THE REASON HE DID NOT MAKE ANY PROVISION FOR THEM WAS BECAUSE HE HAD FORMERLY ADVANCED TO HIS SON IRA what he considered his portion of his (the deceased) property. He further remarked that there was considerable of his property, or that there was a good deal of it & then said that he was afraid that James O. Bennetts children & IRAS would have more property than would be for their good.

By Mr. Noxin: He did not state the amount of his property except the real estate which I think he stated at about 300 ACRES. He was afraid that both families of grandchildren would have more property than would be for their good. I dont know that I remember anything further that was said about IRAS CHILDREN at that time. In drawing the first will I was assisted some by an old will that was drawn some 13 years before. THERE WAS NO PROVISION MADE FOR IRA IN THAT OLD WILL. THERE WAS A STATEMENT IN THAT WILL THAT HE HAD ADVANCED TO IRA what he considered his proportion. I did not learn how much that was. THAT WILL WAS DATED IN 1840. He told me to make away with it. I dont know that I destroyed it or cancelled it. I have it among my papers. Signed Crayton B. Wheeler.

Subscribed & sworn before me this 25th day of July A.D. 1853, L. ?H. Hiscock Surrogate.

William W. Lockwood called on the part of the Executor sworn says I was acquainted with David Hinsdale in his lifetime. I saw him sign his name to this paper opposite the seal. I was called to witness the execution of the will by one of James O. Bennetts boys went & saw Mr. Hinsdale sign his name to the will & he said it was his last will & testament & he said that all wills made previous to that were void when he signed his will his wife came in & asked him if she should bolster him up or hold him up in the bed to sign & he said he preferred she should hold him up. I don't know as I recollect any thing further. I think that Mr. Wheeler read over something that was like the attesting clause to this will after we had signed as witnesses. When I got into the house Mr. Wheeler in the presence of Mr. Hinsdale told me that they wanted I should witness the will of Mr. Hinsdale. it was in this room where Mr. Hinsdale was. I thought he appeared perfectly rational & as sound in mind as I have seen him.

p. 145

Cross examined by Mr. Noxin. I had known Mr. Hinsdale 15-19 years been in there a number of times, 2 or 3 times during the month previous to the death of Mr. Hinsdale. I have stated all that I can recollect that took place when the will was executed. I think I was there 15 minutes. They were getting ready to have him sign the will. I don't recollect anything more that was said while I was there. It was pretty soon after I went in that that Mr. Wheeler told me what he wanted of me. I went in & took a chair & sat down & he told me. I don't recollect as I had spoken to Mr. Hinsdale at that time. I believe that I did not speak to him during the time I was there or he to me as I can recollect. Mr. Wheeler asked Mr. Hinsdale if that was his last will and testament & Mr. H. said "yes it is my last will & testament" as near as I can recollect. I think those were the words. I think that is all the conversation I heard. He was lying down when I first went in partially on his side. I think his face from me. I think partially on his right side. I may be mistaken about that. I can't tell how long after I went in before Mrs. Hinsdale came in, short time, cant tell how many minutes. I think the first conversation was with Mrs. Hinsdale about being raised. I remember the circumstances of her coming in distinctly. I think she spoke to him first. I think this was after Mr. Wheeler told me what he wanted of me. Mr. Wheeler told me he wanted I should witness Mr. Hinsdales will. I didn't notice that Mr. Hinsdale groaned or anything to show that he was in pain before Mrs. Hinsdale came in. I would not attempt to judge of Mr H.insdales soundness of mind wholly from what I heard him say. I did not hear any pain before Mrs. Hinsdale came in. I would not attempt to judge of Mr H.insdales soundness of mind wholly from what I heard him say. I did not hear any of the will read but the attestation clause.

Redirrect.. I think Mrs. Hinsdale asked Mr. Hinsdale how he would write & he said get a book & he would write on that. When I went in I took a chair a very little ways from the bed. Mr. Wheeler was not far from me there. I dont know whether Mr Hinsdale was asleep then. He did not seem to notice me when I came in. Mr. Hinsdale was in the room in the North West corner of the house his head to the ?north & on the west side of the room & Mr. Hinsdale lying on his right side when I came in. By Mr. Noxen I cant say whether he said anything more than a book when his wife asked what he would write on. I think that room was about 18 feet wide or perhaps ot more than 14 feet. I think it was the front parlor. It might be 18 feet long. I cant say which way was the longest but I think it was longest north to south. I should say this room we are in is 17 feet or 18 feet wide. I cant tell how far I was from the bed. About three feet maybe more & maybe less. I think I was five or six feet from the south side of the room. The bed was in the corner. I think head to the north & on the west side next to the wall. The foot of the bed long to the wall. I went into the south door of that room but a short distance from the door cant say how many feet. I think there was a bedroom door on the east side of that room near the north end.

Re Direct I think after we had all signed the will that I read over the attesting clause to me H on the 28th day of May Mr H & I had some conversation in regard to the ch. of his son John. He told me that the reason that he did not make any provision for him was that he had formerly advanced to his son John what he considered his property of his (the decedent's) property. He further remarked that there was considerable of his property or that there was a good deal of it & then said that he was afraid that James O. Bennett's ch & John's would have more property than would be for their good.

By Mr Noxon He did not state the amt of the prop except the real est which I think he stated at abt 300 acres. He said he was afraid that both families of gr ch would have more prop than would be for their own good. I don't know that I remember any thing further that was said abt his ch at that time. In drawing the first will James was, I think some by an old will that was drawn some 13 yrs before there was no provision made for John in that old will. There was a statement in that will that he had advanced to John what he considered his property. I did not know how much that was. That will was dated in 1840. He told me I might say with it. I don't know that I destroyed it or cancelled it. ~~I think~~ I have it among my papers. Subscribed & sworn to on 25th day of July 1853

SETTLEMENT AND IMPROVEMENTS

POMPEY HILL AND VICINITY.

The township of Pompey obtained great celebrity abroad at a very early period, and was principally settled by people from New England, many of whom took up their residence here while the township was a part of the town of Mexico, Herkimer County.

The first white settler in the town of Pompey was Mr. John Wilcox; he came in 1789 from Oneida, in company with an Indian Chief, for the purpose of exploring the country. He made a settlement near an Indian orchard, which was located about two miles north of the present site of Lafayette village. (For these and further particulars relative to his settlement, see Clark's Onondaga, vol. 2d, page 241.)

The first settlement made within the limits of the present township, was made at Pompey Hill, by Ebenezer Butler, who originally came from Harwington, Conn., to Clinton, Oneida County, in the year 1788 or 9; remaining in Clinton till 1791, he left and came, guided by marked trees, to this place, and settled on lot 65, which tradition says, "he bought of a soldier for a horse, saddle and bridle." He erected his first, a log house, near where is now "the Stone Blacksmith Shop," and near to the spring which supplies the watering tub in the present village. Here in the same year, 1791, he moved his family, consisting of his wife, four children, his father and a maiden sister.

The following year, 1792, his brother, Jesse Butler, came from Connecticut, and buying 100 acres of him, on the north half of his lot, made a small clearing and put up a log house on a knoll about 30 rods north of the present site of the M. E. Church. He returned to Connecticut in the fall, and in the month of April, 1793, in company with George Catlin and their families, on an ox sled, came back and made this his residence. Mr. Catlin, having bought of his brother, in-law, Ebenezer Butler, Jr., 100 acres, near the south end of his, (Butler's) section, settled on the same, and afterwards kept the first tavern that was opened in this vicinity.

His house was located a little south of the one lately occupied by Judge Asa Wells.

Jacob Hoar came from Onondaga in the spring of 1793, and settled on lot 48, near a spring of water, at the first four corners on the road leading from the village of Pompey to Jamesville.

Here, afterwards, about 1800, was found something of a village, named Log City, which grew to contain ultimately, a store and ashery, owned by Justice Fowler, (uncle to O. S. Fowler, of New York,) a shoe shop and tannery, a turning lathe, a school house, together with a respectable number of settlers. Log City and the Hill were, for a time, rival settlements.

In the year 1794, Messrs. Jerome & Smith came from Massachusetts and settled on lot number 85, which is the first but one, south of that on which the Butlers had settled.

In 1797, Ebenezer Butler, Jr., or, as he was afterwards more familiarly known, Judge Butler, built the first framed house that was raised in the vicinity of Pompey Hill. This was located on the west side of what is now the public square, and on the present site of Hon. Manoah Pratt's dwelling, formerly Handy's tavern. The next year, 1798, he erected for his father a house, on the present site of the wagon shop so long owned and occupied by Joseph Beach. In the same year, his brother, Jesse Butler, built a frame house on the site where the M. E. Church now stands.

On the corner where the public house is now standing, Truman Lewis had, before 1800, built a small frame house and opened a tavern. From that day till this, there has been a house of entertainment kept in that place. A part of the house located near the Disciple's Church, and when taken down a few years since was owned by Mrs. Orr, was married Amelia Jones, of Pompey, after serving his country in a cavalry regiment during the civil war of 1861-1865, and settled in Meriden, Conn., pursuing the calling of a carpenter and builder. They have one child. Lucy married Richard Bishop, of Pompey, a farmer, and now resides in Lester, Michigan. They have four children.

HINSDELL FAMILY.

In writing a history of the first settlers of Pompey, the writer has to bear in mind; first, that but little space can be allowed for each family; and secondly, that he must not paint the bravery, honor and virtue of "a long line of ancestors," but confine his history to those only who actually settled in Pompey.

B 1754

Among the above named was David Hinsdell, who was born at Salisbury, Conn., June 30th, 1854; but soon after his birth, his parents were compelled by the hostility of the Indians, to move to Lenox, Berkshire County, Mass., where they had formerly lived. Here David Hinsdell grew to manhood, was married to Farozina Bemus, and in due time became the father of five children, removing in 1787 to Galway, Saratoga County, N. Y.

At this place five more children were born; when he came to the conclusion that in order to support his growing family, he must remove to some more fertile locality, and Pompey seemed to him the modern Canaan for which he longed. The purchase of one-fourth of lot 6 was made 1794, and preparations made to move and occupy it the next season, but his house taking fire in the night, the family escaped with but little save what clothing they chanced to have, thus rendering their migration impossible for a time. However, in September, 1795, he sent Moses, his oldest son, then eighteen years of age, to Pompey to build a house and make such preparations as would enable the family to follow the coming winter: once arrived upon the scene of his future labors, the youthful Moses found that he had no means to draw upon, but his brawn and muscle; therefore, he drew upon them, and his draft was honored, for he first cut, logged, and burnt over two acres, which he sowed to wheat; then from the logs he had sawed for the purpose, he built a log house, covering it with bark and having it completed ready for the occupancy of the family who came in February, 1796. Here David Hinsdell had two more children born, and from a school roll now in possession of the family, it appears that in the winter of 1799 and 1800, six of his children attended a school taught by Levi Jerome.

David Hinsdell died in 1822, and his wife some years later, the homestead passing into the possession of Chauncy Hinsdell, who lived on it until his death, which occurred a few years since, and his children still own it. All the sons except Chauncy and Moses, sought homes in other localities; Moses buying fifteen acres on lot 17, in 1801, of Mr. Sweet, giving therefor his note, as he had nothing else to give—adding however, in the course of time, five hundred acres to the first purchase. In order to follow out in detail my sketch of Moses Hinsdell, I must go back to 1798, when being twenty years of age, he bargained with his father for his time, cutting off therefor, a certain piece of timber, which being duly finished, he stepped out into the world to make his own fortune, being possessed of good vigorous constitution, the clothes he had on, two pairs of shoes and his good axe. In 1800 he joined lands and fortunes with Rachael Hibbard, marrying her in November of that year; her worldly possessions being one cow, eight sheep, and I think a little crockery; she also was possessed of good common sense, a kind loving heart full of noble impulses and good will to all, and a self sacrificing disposition, which stood the test of more than forty years of married life; helping over the rough places, cheering the despondent, restraining the wayward and volatile, developing into a pure Christian mode of life which enabled her to say "thy will be done," when she was called to her reward in 1841. There were born unto this couple ten children—six sons and four daughters, viz: Eli B. Hinsdell, who died at Salina, in 1856. Harriet Hinsdell, (Mrs. David Barber,) now living in Syracuse. Polly Hinsdell, (Mrs. John S. Wells,) who died in 1863. Eliza Hinsdell, (Mrs. L. B. Pitcher,) living in the town of Salina. Samuel Hinsdell, living at Fairmount, N. Y.

David H. Hinsdell living at Manlius, N. Y., Stephen Hinsdell living at Syracuse. Myraette Hinsdell, (Mrs. D. Fairbank,) living at Kalamazoo, Mich. Perry H. Hinsdell living in the town of Salina, and Moses B. Hinsdell who died in Lyons, Mich. In 1843, he was again married to Mrs. Phebe Underwood, who is still living at Forrestville, N. Y., but in 1857 he died in Pompey, at the age of seventy-eight years. I have remarked that Moses Hinsdell started out in life at twenty years; and he so started determined to succeed, if truth, integrity and industry could succeed—as he knew they must. Following firmly in the path he marked out, he soon was a man of influence among his fellows, and during his long life, no man could accuse him of extortion, fraud or untruth. In his later years, he often remarked with pride, that no note he ever gave came to maturity unpaid, except in one instance, when an $100 note given on demand to the holder's order, came back to him after "many days," having passed current from one man to another in the usual first of April payments, until over twenty endorsements graced its back, having passed through over a score of hands, and paid over $2,000 of indebtedness. A very positive man, and one accustomed to think and act quickly, he was often wrong, and clung to that wrong with a tenacity worthy of a better cause; but no man was more willing to accept the truth than he, when it was shown to him. He was generous to a fault in a cause he deemed worthy, but no man, or set of men, ever caused him to swerve from a position his judgment told him was well taken. He was just the kind of a man to settle in a new country, and help to develop it, and there are too few of them in this present day. He never mixed much in politics, always refused of and really accomplished what he said ought to be every man's mission, viz: "to make the world some better for having lived in it."

DAVID HIBBARD.

The reader will recognize the above as a Pompey name. The subject of this sketch was a revolutionary soldier, like many other pioneer residents of Pompey. He settled in Pompey on lot No. 6, in 1794. In addition to agricultural pursuits, he was a carpenter and joiner. During his early residence in Pompey, his son John was killed by the falling of a tree. This left him four sons and five daughters. The names of the four remaining sons were Samuel, Robert, Jacob and Isaac V. V. Hibbard, the latter of whom was a member of the N. Y. Assembly in 1853. Samuel M. Hibbard, a son of Isaac V. V., now occupies the old homestead of his grandfather, David. Samuel Hibbard, son of David, has two sons resident in Pompey; one bears the name of his grandfather, David Hibbard; the name of the other is Charles Hibbard.

HEZEKIAH HOPKINS.

Col. Hezekiah Hopkins was born in Harwinton, Litchfield Co., Conn., and moved thence with his family in 1800 to Clinton, Oneida Co., N. Y. Here he remained about two years, and then came to Pompey Hill. He was married to Eunice Hubbell, by whom he had nine children; five of them were sons and four daughters—Sheldon, Milton, Harry, Hezekiah, Jr., Richard, Fanny, Laura, Dothy and Charlotte, the latter being born about a year after their arrival in Pompey. Col. Hopkins kept the hotel on the site now (1874,) occupied by Peter Oley, some twenty-four years, very much to the satisfaction of the public, keeping a very temperate, quiet and orderly place. He sold to his son Harry and purchased a small farm near the village, where he and his wife lived with his son Hezekiah until their death, being at the time of their decease about seventy-eight years of

He immediately repaired to the scene of murder, (for it was nothing less,) and assiduously devoted himself to the relief of the unfortunate victims, by dressing their wounds, and rendering any other assistance of which they stood in need. Thirty years after, three of the sufferers called on him in Pompey, to express to him their gratitude for his timely and kindly aid.

Soon after the close of the war, he settled in Pittsfield, Mass., where he remained one year. He then (June 2d, 1786) married Miss Lucy Bliss, daughter of Hon. Moses Bliss, of Springfield, Mass., and grand-daughter of Timothy Edwards, and settled in Lanesborough, Berkshire County, Mass. There he pursued his profession about eighteen years, then moved with his family to Pompey, where he arrived November 3d, 1805; he lived in the house then owned by Daniel Wood, Esq., near the Academy, one year, and then settled on the farm on lot 66, where his son John H. Clarke now lives. Here he continued to labor in his profession till infirmities incident to old age terminated his labors, and he closed his useful life in Pompey, March 4th, 1826.

Dr. Clarke's reputation as a Physician and Surgeon, stood high; but his reputation as a Surgeon did not consist so much in the number of limbs amputated, as in their preservation; but when it became necessary to resort to the tourniquet and knife, he knew how to use them. He was a skillful operator.

His children were:—

First—Henry, who studied law with Hon. Victory Birdseye, served as an officer in the war of 1812, and died at Ithaca, February 19th, 1817.

Second—Harriet, married Hon. Daniel Gilbert, and died at Coldwater, Mich., November 27th, 1864.

Third—Charles, died at Dowagiac, Michigan, April 22d, 1874.

Fourth—Lucy, died July 29th, 1846.

Fifth—John H., now lives on lot 66, Pompey.

Sixth—William M., now lives in Onondaga, near Syracuse.

Seventh—Moses B., died November 20th, 1865.

Eighth—Theodore E., died October 26th, 1853.

PAUL CLAPP.

Paul Clapp, the father of John, Chester and Carlton, was born in the year 1752, at Chesterfield, Mass., and when the youngest son, Carlton, was two years old, he immigrated to Pompey, in the year 1798. His family then consisted of his wife, whose maiden name was Hepsibah Guilford, and nine children, to-wit:—Paul, Jr., Sally, Electa, Hadessa, Patty, Phelena, John, Chester and Carlton. Electa lives in George County, Ohio, and is the only surviving member of the family. Paul Clapp was a soldier in the war of the Revolution, and at the time of his death was a recipient of a pension; he was a member of an expedition through the northern wilderness, which made an aggressive war upon the Indians and Tories, and was taken prisoner, carried to Canada, and suffered great hardship. After coming to Pompey, he took up a large tract of land, to which he afterwards added largely; being engaged in agricultural pursuits till his death, which occurred in 1845, upon the land which he reclaimed from its wilderness state. Three of his sons settled on his land in Pompey—John, Chester and Carlton. Paul Clapp, Jr., went to Ohio, being one of the pioneer settlers in that State. John Clapp married a daughter of David Hinsdell; his children now living are Addison Clapp, of Pompey, Edmund O. Clapp, of Syracuse, Therissa, wife of Chester Baker, of LaFayette, N. Y., Mary Clapp, of Manlius, N. Y., Rhoda, wife of Dr. Tollman, of Onondaga valley, and Flora, Mrs. Reed, of Manlius Village.

Chester married Sally Hinman about the year 1819: their living children are Morris H. Clapp, of Urbanna, Ohio, and Esther, Mrs. Dorwin, of Syracuse.

Carlton Clapp married Harriet Foote, of Manlius; their surviving children are Mary A., Mrs. Hervey Jerome, of Lincoln, Nebraska, Guilford C. Clapp, of Pompey, N. Y., and DeLaney Clapp, of DeWitt, N. Y.

Edmund O. Clapp, named above, died in Syracuse since writing this sketch.

JOHN J. DEMING.

Sacred to the memory of John J. Deming, whose biography it has been impossible to obtain. He was an accomplished gentleman, a profound scholar and favorite teacher. He was one of the early teachers in Pompey, and taught in the west room of the old Pompey Academy.

"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen,
And waste its sweetness on the desert air."

DODGE FAMILY.

Hezekiah Dodge came to Pompey with his brother, Ezra, in 1795, and settled on the same tract of land on Lot No. 50. He owned that portion of the land subsequently known as the John Wells' farm. Like his brothers, his life was devoted to agriculture. He, too, was one of the early contributors to building and endowing the Pompey Academy. He removed from Pompey in 1842, and went to live with his son, Oren, who moved to Lysander, Onondaga County, in 1826. With him he lived till his death, which occurred in 1844, at the age of sixty-five. He was married in Connecticut, to Hannah Roberts, whose father was a Revolutionary soldier; by her he had six children; in the order of their ages, they were Nehemiah, Oren, Charles, Julia, Joanna and William. Nehemiah went to Oswego, and died at about the age of fifty-two. He was married to Fannie Beebe, and left four children who live in Wisconsin, except one who resides at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Oren, who was seventy-five years old Jan. 3d, 1875, married Almira Russ, by whom he had three children, Caroline, Sarah and Julia, two of whom only, Caroline and Julia, are living and both married. They reside in Schroppe, Oswego County, N. Y. His first wife died, and he married Almira Lyboul, who died in 1868. He now lives with his third wife, who was Mrs. Susan Smith, at Plainville, in Lysander. Two years ago, at the age of seventy years, she wove eleven hundred yards of carpeting, manufactured twenty pounds of wool and did her own house work, her husband and herself constituting the family.

Julia, the fourth child of Hezekiah, married Dr. George Morley, who lived on the farm now owned by Joseph Wallis. She died leaving no children.

Charles, the third son of Hezekiah, married Nancy Wells, of Cazenovia. At first they went to Lysander, and thence to Michigan, stopping a short time near Rochester, N. Y. From St. Joseph, Mich., they moved to near Austin, Texas, Dec. 3d, 1853, where they now reside. He is a farmer and largely engaged in raising cattle. One child, a son, died in Michigan, and he has remaining one daughter, Helen, who married Judge Turner, of Texas. He, on account of his Union sentiments, was obliged to leave his State and come north. During the campaign which resulted in the second election of Lincoln, he advocated the Republican cause upon the stump, in various places through the North.

Joanna Dodge married Jerome Sweet, a nephew of Horace Sweet, late of Pompey. They went to Indiana, near Albion, where he engaged in farming. They have four children, having lost one son in the late war; three daughters and one son are living near their parents; they are all married.

William Dodge moved to Michigan and engaged in lumbering; he was married to Juliette Dunham, of Little Utica, N. Y. He met a violent and sudden death while at work in the saw mill which he built. He left a widow and five children.

Ezra Dodge came to Pompey from Litchfield, Conn.,

Reunion of the Sons & Daughters of the Old Town of Pompey by Publication Committee, Pompey, 1875

Luther Marsh married, for second wife, Margaret Leonard, daughter of Rev. Joshua Leonard, of Pompey. She resides at Chicago. By this marriage there were two children, Alexander Marsh, lumber merchant, and Joshua Leonard Marsh, lawyer, both of Chicago, Ill.

Luther Marsh was High-Sheriff of Onondaga county for two terms, 1823-6.

NOAH PALMER, Sr.

Was born in Brantford, Conn., in the year 1764. When he was seven years old his father died in Connecticut, about the beginning of the Revolutionary War. As early as 1790 he came from Brantford to Cazenovia, and bought a place with Col. Linclae, in 1797, in Pompey, near Oran, now owned by his grand-son Daniel D. Palmer. Upon this farm he lived thirty-eight years. After he died his son Noah owned it thirty-six years. He was a nail maker, and worked for old Col. Linclae at that business for five or six years. It is said he made the first nails that were used in building in the town of Pompey. He died in the year 1835, upon the land which he purchased in 1797, in Pompey; his son Noah succeeding him in the title to the estate. Two of his children, Noah and Martha, were born in Pompey, and these are both now (1874) dead. One daughter Mrs. Edmund Thomas, is living. Mr. Palmer was of that type of manhood whose stern and unyielding integrity bears fruit, in the years when his form lies silent in the grave, of whom it may be justly said, "Tho' dead he yet speaks."

DR. SILAS PARK.

Silas Park was born in Litchfield, Conn., December 1st, 1778. Having acquired a good education, he commenced the study of medicine with his uncle, Dr. Robt. Starkweather in Chesterfield, Mass. He moved to Pompey West Hill, in 1800, and commenced the practice of his profession, his ride extending from Liverpool, on the north, to Port Watson, (Cortland village,) on the south, and from Skaneateles on the west, to Cazenovia on the east. This area then contained less than 3,000 white settlers whose population is now over 200,000 people. In 1802, he returned to Massachusetts and married Miss Dolly Clapp, of Chesterfield, daughter of Col. Amasa Clapp, of Chesterfield, a soldier of the Revolution. On his return to Pompey, crossing the Hudson river at Albany in a sleigh, the ice broke, letting sleigh, horses, baggage, wife and all into the water. They narrowly escaped drowning. They were rescued by citizens of Albany, who by chance saw them in their danger. This accident compelled them to remain in Albany a day or more. Nothing unusual occurred during the remainder of their journey. In 1803 their first child and only son, Dr. Elijah Park was born. In the war of 1812, Dr. Silas Park went as a surgeon with the soldiers who were called from this section to Smith's Mills and Sackett's Harbor. There he met surgeons of the regular army, and he took a high position among them as a skillful physician and surgeon. He died in 1824. His wife survived him, living at the old home till she reached the age of 95 years, and died in the year 1867. When we ask what can be said of her, the answer is, "Anything and all that is good."

Their only son, Dr. Elijah Park was born in Pompey, now LaFayette, April 1st, 1803, and he studied with his father, and also with Doctors Beach and Davis of Marcellus, and his uncle Dr. Elijah Park, of Otisco. He graduated at the Berkshire Medical Institute, December 26, 1826. He was at the time he graduated and has continued to be a practicing Physician up to the time of his death, his home being in LaFayette village. He was married twice, the first time August 24, 1824, to Miss Catharine Parent, of Otisco. By her he had ten children, four sons and six daughters; seven of them, two sons and five daughters are married and living within three hours ride of the old home. One married a carpenter and joiner, the others are farmers or farmers' wives. He was married a second time, April 14, 1843, present by him to some distinguished Indian chief. In that neighborhood a basswood tree was cut down and an ineffectual attempt made to split the first twelve feet of it into rails. Upon examination a large chain was found encircling it, over which one hundred and seventy-eight concentric circles had formed, representing as many years' growth. A large hemlock tree was discovered with three distinct cuts of an ax imbedded beneath one hundred and seventy-nine years' growth. Subtracting one hundred and seventy-eight from 1815, the time when these examinations were made, and we have the date 1637, at the time when these marks are supposed to have been made, at which time it is reasonable to suppose the neighborhood was inhabited by Europeans.

David Williams at one time plowed up the skeleton of a man, and found with it a small brass kettle filled with corn and beans in a tolerably good state of preservation. The kettle was used in his family for domestic purposes several years.

Mr. Hinsdell, of Pompey, had at one time in his possession three vases, one of which was very large, the jaws alone weighing forty-one pounds. It was beautifully engraved all over with representations of dogs, bears, deer, squirrels, fishes, birds, and was altogether a very beautiful specimen of workmanship. Another, a hand vase of excellent quality, was sold to Mr. Boylston, a silversmith, of Manlius village, who used it while he continued in business there. A nest of brass kettles was also found by Mr. David Hinsdell, the largest of which would hold two pails full, and the smallest about three pints. Some of the smaller ones, being well preserved on account of the protection afforded by the larger ones outside, were used in Mr. Hinsdell's and Mr. Weston's families for several years.

A case of surgical instruments, much corroded by rust, was found by the side of a human skeleton probably the first physician and surgeon ever in Brittany. Among the relics positively known to be French, are several brass pendants bearing the inscription "Kou de France et Dieu." They were probably used for nose and ear jewels. Rows of large corn hills were abundant near all the places being excavated and occupied, and were distinctly the work of the early settlers. That undoubtedly

Most of the grounds mentioned had undoubtedly seen series of hard-fought battles, of which the few remaining pockets of ancient traditions, for such was then adherence of scenes, counted here that were, except in a few rare instances, could they be traced to and the spot near the old fort and burying-ground. They turned home it with a sort of growth once started over the grassy area.

Near David Williams' Pumping one mile from "Indian Hill" was another place of considerable importance called "The Castle." The latter is a rocky mound was here located, on one side of which was an equidistant thug with a long neck, and on the other "William Prince," a thin man with a pointed coat of arms. The stone monument to William Prince of Orange County died in infancy and had been quite conspicuous in the affairs of New York some years previous. The locality may have been a

The most singular and interesting discovery covered in this locality, is a stone found by Mr. Philo Cleveland in the year 1820. It consists of a large, white, oval shaped, about four or five inches wide and eight or ten inches long, on which is inscribed the inscription of a tree in the year of the world 5120. This stone was found by the Historical Institute at Andover, and admitted to be an authentic discovery. It shows that it was at the time of its discovery since elapsed; hence it carries the earliest European occupation of this country three hundred and fifty years before our own time. That this stone was found by a Roman Catholic, and it is equally clear that it was a transient visitor, for a collection of other relics of a similar antiquity.

The inscription has been the grace (or will) of God, cate. The words De Leon, read them, have been taken of the person buried, as the sepulchral monument, placed in the grave of some one who died on his journey through the wilderness before the Jesuit missionaries reached the huts of the Indians. When on the stone is an Indian, it does not concern us, need to his belonging to the Mission, proposed by some to be inscribed on the right hand corner of the points of importance being the of the historical knowledge. village bearing that name. He received an excellent education for his time, beginning in the local district school and finishing at Fairfield Seminary, being some time a student at the public schools at Ogdensburg. In vacations and after school at night, when at home, he was busy in assisting his father about the store and upon the large estate, thus becoming early accustomed to the transaction of business and dealing with all classes of people. After leaving school he continued to be the invaluable aid of his father, whom he ultimately succeeded in business. In March, 1847, he became the owner of the store, by purchase, and continued successfully in its conduct until 1879, when he disposed of his mercantile interests. The building in which the store was located is still a part of his estate, and its use for a store has never been discontinued. He had charge of his father's farming lands for many years, and was administrator of the estate after the father's death. He was eminently successful, both as a farmer and a merchant, and handled lands with profit. He passed away at his home at Ox Bow, February 23, 1896.

Mr. Cooper was baptized in the Protestant Episcopal church. There being no society near him after his removal to Ox Bow, he attended and supported the Presbyterian church, and was a contributor to all churches in his neighborhood. A thorough Christian, he desired to promote the welfare of his fellows, and was ever ready to foster any elevating influence. He was not allied with any fraternal societies, but practiced the virtues inculcated in them, and enjoyed the friendship and highest respect of a wide circle of acquaintances. Because of business demands, he felt that he could not afford to assume the responsibilities of public office, but was earnest in support of his principles, acting many years with the Democratic party, and with the Prohibitionists during his last years. A strictly moral man in every relation of life, he sought to keep temptation from the weak and those who were viciously inclined. He was especially sympathetic and kind in dealing with the poor. The esteem in which he was held is indicated by the fact that he was often chosen to administer estates and as guardian of orphan children. He had most remarkable mathematical gifts, and was often called upon to straighten out problems for students and teachers of his section.

Mr. Cooper was married, September 17, 1846, to Miss Nancy Hinsdale, who was born June 30, 1823, at Ox Bow, daughter of Ira and Hannah (Stephens) Hinsdale (see Hinsdale, VI). Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, namely: Chauncey Hinsdale and Ida Elizabeth. The latter died at the age of two years, and the former lived to be twenty-four and one-half years of age, a most competent and promising young man. He died in Louisiana, where he had a large plantation, and most flattering business prospects.

HINSDALE. This name was brought to America from England, and its representatives have been prominent and have given names to townships in several states. The descendants have filled honorable places in the social and business life of Jefferson county, and have kept untarnished the name bequeathed by worthy ancestors.

(I) Robert Hinsdale, the pioneer American ancestor, is first found of record as one of the founders of the first church at Dedham, Massachusetts, November 8, 1638. He was made a freeman March 13th of the following year, and was a member of the artillery in 1641. His wife, Ann, surname supposed to be Woodward, died in middle life. He moved to Medfield, where he was active in forming a church, as early as 1672. Subsequently he lived some years at Hadley, Massachusetts. There he married his second wife, Elizabeth, widow of John Hawks. He moved to Deerfield, where he was killed by Indians while gathering corn in the field. At the same time his sons, Barnabas, John and Samuel, were slain. This occurred on the memorable date of the battle of Bloody Brook, September 18, 1675, where the flower of Essex was massacred by the red men. His widow subsequently married Thomas Dibble. Robert Hinsdale's children were: Elizabeth, Barnabas, Samuel, Gamaliel, Mary, Experience, John and Ephraim.

(II) Barnabas, eldest son and second child of Robert Hinsdale, was born November 13, 1639, in Dedham. He was married October 15, 1656, in Hadley, to Sarah White Taylor, daughter of Elder John and Mary White, of Hartford, and widow of Stephen Taylor. He had five children.

(III) Isaac, fourth child of Barnabas Hinsdale, was born September 15, 1673, in Hatfield, Massachusetts. He was married January 6, 1714, to Lydia Loomis, born February 17, 1687, daughter of Joseph and Lydia (Drake) Loomis (see Loomis). He lived in Hartford, Connecticut, and had four children.

(IV) Jonathan, fourth child of Isaac and Lydia Hinsdale, was born March 17, 1724, in Hartford, and married Sarah Bernard, December, 1742. She was born September 17, 1727, in Hartford. He was the first settler in the town of Lenox, Massachusetts, in 1750. During the French and Indian war he went to Salisbury, Connecticut, and returned to Lenox after that struggle was over. He died January 31, 1811, and his wife March 4, 1791, in her sixty-fourth year. She was the mother of eight children.

(V) David, second child of Jonathan and Sarah Hinsdale, was born June 30, 1754, in Salisbury, and married Farazina Bemus, who was born March 24, 1753. They lived at Lenox and in Galway and Pompey, New York. He was a farmer, and his farm in Pompey is still in possession of his descendants. His family included twelve children.

(VI) Ira, eleventh child of David and Farazina Hinsdale, was born June 6, 1797, in Pompey, and died March 24, 1882, at Ox Bow, in the town of Antwerp. He was married November 4, 1818, to Hannah, daughter of John and Ann (Woodworth) Stephens, the last-named being a daughter of Abner and Hannah (Dyer) Woodworth, of Canaan, formerly of Norfolk, Connecticut, where Hannah (Stephens) Hinsdale was born November 6, 1797. Family tradition says that John Stephens was a drummer in the Revolutionary army. Mrs. Hinsdale died November 26, 1879, at Ox Bow. Immediately after his marriage Ira Hinsdale settled in the town of Antwerp, where he cleared up a farm, and tilled it successfully many years. By industry and prudence he was enabled to add to his lands until they amounted to five hundred acres. Late in life he rented his farm and moved to the village of Ox Bow, where he purchased several acres of land, and occupied himself in its care until his death. He introduced Merino sheep in his locality, and realized a handsome profit from the sale of wool during and after the Civil war. He was a Universalist in religious belief, and an old-school Democrat in matters pertaining to public policy. He had five children. George, the eldest, is mentioned at length in later paragraphs. Elizabeth married Elial Gilbert Wait, lived on a farm and in a hotel at Ox Bow, and died at Theresa, while visiting a niece there. Nancy is the widow of Nicoll J. Cooper, residing in Ox Bow (see Cooper). David Schuyler died at Ox Bow in 1872. Helen married Moses Rich, of Richville, St. Lawrence county, whom she survives and now resides in Chicago.

(VII) George, eldest child of Ira and Hannah Hinsdale, was born November 11, 1819, in Antwerp. He bought a farm adjoining that of his father, which he tilled ten years and then sold, and purchased a hotel at Rensselaer Falls, St. Lawrence county, which he kept a few years. This he sold and bought a farm in that vicinity. He was injured by a falling tree, and died from the effects of this mishap a week later, February 21, 1859, in his fortieth year. He married Harriet A. Hamlin, October 26, 1843 (see Hamlin), and they had three children. Ira Cassius, the first of these, is a merchant in Antwerp village. Florence, born August 8, 1848, was married January 2, 1877, to Alexander B. Clark, a merchant of Ox Bow (see Clark). George J. is a merchant at Rensselaer Falls.

PHILIP MILLARD. In a list of those citizens of Ellisburgh who are respected alike for sound ability and strict adherence to principle at whatever cost, the name of Philip Millard would stand very high. On the paternal side he traces his descent from Huguenots, who found a refuge from religious persecution in the new world, while through his mother he is of English ancestry, and belongs to the family from which sprang Wendell Phillips, the renowned champion of freedom for the slave.

Gardner Millard was born November 10, 1797, in Rehoboth, Massachusetts, and about 1818 moved to Genesee county, New York, and the following year came to Ellisburgh. His trade was that of a general mason. He was unswerving in his devotion to what he deemed right, giving proof of this by identifying himself with the anti-slavery cause at a time when to do so required no small degree of moral courage. He married July 24, 1817, Lavina, born January 21, 1798, daughter of Abizer and Chloe (Chase) Phillips, natives of Rehoboth, Massachusetts, where their children were born. Mr. Phillips was a farmer and shoemaker, and during the war of the revolution served in the patriot army. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips moved to Ellisburgh about the same time that Mr. and Mrs. Millard made their home there. They settled at Mannsville, where they passed the remainder of their lives. The death of Mrs. Phillips occurred in 1844, when she was eighty-four years old, and Mr. Phillips expired in 1856, having attained the remarkable age of ninety-six years.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard were the parents of the following children: Nathan T., born July 24, 1819, was a physician in Princeton, Wisconsin, and died April 4, 1897; Alpheus A., born December 7, 1821, was a farmer near Mannsville, and died April 27, 1883; Gardner J., born February 18, 1823, was a butcher and hotel keeper at Mannsville, and died September 1, 1874. Abizer P., born October 15, 1825, and is now living as a farmer in Ellisburgh; Merrill M., born April 26, 1827, was a mercantile clerk in

- ✕ David Hinsdell, a native of Salisbury, Conn., born June 30, 1754, lived in Galway, Saratoga county, N.Y., from 1787 to 1795, when he removed to Pompey, and settled on his purchase of one-fourth of lot 6. In September of the year last named, he sent his oldest son, Moses, then eighteen, to Pompey to build a house which the family could occupy the coming winter. The house was completed and the family came on in February, 1796. David Hinsdell was the father of twelve children, and died in 1822. The names of six of these children are found in the list of scholars who attended Levi Jerome's school in the winter of 1799-1800, taught by Levi Jerome. The Hinsdell homestead passed into possession of Chauncey Hinsdell. Excepting Chauncey and Moses, all the sons removed from the town. Moses bought fifteen acres on lot 17, in T801, of Mr. Sweet, for which he gave his note, and in the course of time added 500 acres to his purchase. He was the father of ten children, among whom were some of the prominent citizens of the county.

David Hibbard, a Revolutionary soldier, settled on lot 6, in 1794, and combined farming with his trade of carpentry. He had five sons, among whom was Isaac V. V. Hibbard, who was member of assembly in 1853, and whose son, Samuel M., occupied the homestead in recent years.

About the year 1802 Col. Hezekiah Hopkins, who had lived two years in Clinton, Oneida county, removed to Pompey Hill, where he kept a hotel nearly twenty-five years, to the satisfaction of the community. He sold the property to his son Harry, and purchased a small farm near the village, where he died at about seventy-eight years of age.

HISTORY OF ONONDAGA COUNTY, NEW YORK.

Nalf Lanfar & Co. It was about the size of a Spanish pistareen and had been compressed between dies. The characters and letters were quite distinct. This relic passed into the possession of Hon. Samuel Mitchell.

When this ground was first cultivated by the early settlers, gun-barrels, sword blades, hatchets, clay pipes, copper kettles, brass chains, beads of glass, pewter plates, finger rings, ear and nose jewels, lead balls, iron gate-hangings, copper coins, tools for working wood and iron, and many other articles used only by civilized men, together with human bones, were frequently found on or near the earth's surface.

There was a circular fort here, from three hundred to three hundred and fifty feet in diameter, with one narrow gateway.

In 1801, Mr. John Hatch plowed up three muskets and a blunderbuss. The stocks were decayed and the muzzles flattened, as if with the head of an ax. Nearly all the gun-barrels found had their muzzles thus flattened, indicating that it was probably done to prevent them from being again useful in the hands of an enemy. The guns usually found were of a heavy make, with bell-shaped muzzles, apparently of English manufacture. The copper coins were French, but so corroded that the marks and dates could not be deciphered.

Clark, who published his history in 1849, says: "At every plowing something new is brought to light. Not long since a curiously wrought brass chain, two and a half feet long and one inch and a half wide, was found. Its appearance was as if it had recently been subjected to the action of fire, and the most prominent parts newly polished. A curious brass image was recently found there, probably a part of some Roman priest's collection."

Contiguous to this place was an extensive burying ground covered with graves of men, women and children. The skeletons were usually found buried in a sitting posture facing the east, with some domestic utensil or weapon of war between the thigh bones. Traces of two hundred years' growth once stood over these graves.

Near David Williams's Pompey, one mile from "Indian Hill" was another place of considerable importance called the "Cave." In the early years of the war here fought, on the side of which was an expedition made with a view to capturing the place. "William" was the name of the place, and it was a place of great importance. The place was situated on the bank of a river, and it was a place of great importance. The place was situated on the bank of a river, and it was a place of great importance. present by him to some distinguished Indian chief. In that neighborhood a basswood tree was cut down and an ineffectual attempt made to split the first twelve feet of it into rails. Upon examination a large chain was found encircling it, over which one hundred and seventy-eight concentric circles had formed, representing as many years' growth. A large hemlock tree was discovered with three distinct cuts of an ax imbedded beneath one hundred and seventy-nine years' growth. Subtracting one hundred and seventy-eight from 1815, the time when these examinations were made, and we have the date 1637, as the time when these marks are supposed to have been made, at which time it is reasonable to suppose the neighborhood was inhabited by Europeans.

David Williams at one time plowed up the skeleton of a man, and found with it a small brass kettle filled with corn and beans in a tolerably good state of preservation. The kettle was used in his family for domestic purposes several years.

Mr. Hinsdell, of Pompey, had at one time in his possession three vises, one of which was very large, the jaws alone weighing forty-one pounds. It was beautifully engraved all over with representations of dogs, bears, deer, squirrels, fishes, birds, and was altogether a very beautiful specimen of workmanship. Another, a hand vise of excellent quality, was sold to Mr. Boylston, a silversmith, of Manlius village, who used it while he continued in business there. A nest of brass kettles was also found by Mr. David Hinsdell, the largest of which would hold two pails full, and the smallest about three pints. Some of the smaller ones, being well preserved on account of the protection afforded by the larger ones outside, were used in Mr. Hinsdell's and Mr. Weston's families for several years.

A case of surgical instruments, much corroded by rust, was found by the side of a human skeleton probably the first physician and surgeon ever in Pompey. Among the relics positively known to be French, are several brass crescents bearing the inscription "Roi de France et d'Espagne." They were probably used for nose and ear jewels. Rows of large corn hulls were abundant near all the places where the early settlers lived, and were distinctly marked by the early settlers.

Most of the grounds mentioned had undoubtedly been sites of hard fought battles, of which the French and Indian wars were no exception, for such was then abundance of scenes enacted here that it is, except in a few rare instances, could they be induced to visit the spot near the old fort and burying ground. They turned from it with a sort of shudder, exclaiming, "Oz field of blood!"

The most singular and covered in this locality, is found by Mr. Philo Clevens year 1820. It consists of a stone, oval shaped, about twelve inches wide and eight inches high. The inscription of a tree in the soil around it, and the words "Deo VI, 1520." This stone was found by the Historical Institute at A. admitted to be an authentic date on it shows that it was at the time of its discovery since elapsed; hence it carries the earliest European occupation three hundred and fifty years ago. That this stone was a Roman Catholic knowledge of the history of and it is equally clear that transient visitor, for a colonist residing in the place, other relics of a similar nature.

The inscription had been the grace (or will) of God, etc. The words Deo VI, 1520, read them, have been taken of the person buried, as the sepulchral monument, placed in the grave of some one who died before the Jesuit missionaries came to the Indians. Who on the stone is an Indian and does not concern us, next to his belonging to the A. posed by some to be on the right hand corner points of importance being of the historical knowledge. Leo X was crowned pope would be the sixteenth most probable explanation that some Spanish adventures had penetrated this one of them dying here. There is a tradition that the were covered with the sun crystallized water of the nature of

Oran Cemetery

ORAN CEMETERY

The Oran Cemetery is located in the Village of Oran on the Oran Station Road, Town of Pompey, Lot 11.

The Pleasant Valley Society was organized by Rev. Hugh Wallace in 1805-1806, with Jedediah Cleveland, Joseph Bartholomew and Punderson Avery as the original Trustees. In 1807, the Society had built a Meeting House on the site of the present Oran Cemetery. Since this building became known as a church, the land adjoining the churchyard was purchased as a "burying ground" for $40.00.

The present Trustees of the Pleasant Valley Society include: Joseph Willis, Albert Pfol, Raymond Benson, David Tessier, Theresa Rice and LaVerne and Wilma Buyea as clerks.

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS - ORAN CEMETERY

ASA BARNES - Died Jan. 8, 1824, at 64y. Asa Barnes came to Oran in 1793. Two of the same name were in the Col. Jonathan Ward's regiment, Marlborough, Mass., and marched on the Lexington alarm.

PHINEAS BARNES - Died Sept. 3, 1828, at 73y. Col. Brown's regiment, 1777, in Stockbridge, Mass. He was in Great Burnington in 1790.

JOSEPH BARTHOLOMEW - Died May 21, 1806, at 54y. Born in Wallingford, Ct., August 25, 1752, and married Esther Cleveland. In 1793, settled on Lot 11, Pompey, building the first tavern there in 1796 which he kept till his death. Served in Capt. Cook's Co., Wallingford in the Lexington alarm, and his name appears in Capt. Norris's Co., 11th Conn. regiment in '78 from Killingly. In 1790, his name was recorded in Branford, Ct., and Canajoharie, N.Y. He was appointed ensign in '76, in 3rd Co., 2nd regiment, Conn. militia.

DANIEL CANDA - Died Aug. 9, 1831, at 69y. The D.A.R. Lineage book says he was born in Oxford, Ct., serving at West Point in 1781, in Conn. militia. Wife was Lydia Wilcox. He was born Feb. 19, 1762 and came to Pompey in 1817.

PIONEERS WHOSE NAMES ARE ON THE REVOLUTIONARY ROLLS, BUT NOT IDENTIFIED

JONATHAN BUEL - Died Apr. 13, 1823, at 77y. In Conn. rolls in Capt. Barnes' Co., Col. Hoopers' regiment 1777, and also in Willet's N.Y. Levies. Probable.

DEA. DANIEL DUNHAM - Died May 21, 1822, at 78y. He came from Windham, Ct., where there were four of the name in 1790. In Conn. rolls it occurs several times as in Col. Webb's regiment.

THOMAS FOSTER - Died Dec. 4, 1824, at 62y. New York and New England rolls.

DEA. JEDEDIAH CLEVELAND - Died Sept. 20, 1831, at 72y. Private in Capt. Wm. Clark's Co., Col. Sisson's Regt., eight days in 1777. Sergeant in Capt. Wm. Whites Co., Berkshire Co., Mass., three months and ten days in 1780. In 1790, in Dalton, Mass. Married Lydia Merrill, Nov. 14, 1780. Officiated as deacon before and after coming to Pompey.

ISAAC DELAMATER - Died Mar. 12, 1830, at 78y. Born at Oblong, now Ansonia, N.Y., Dec. 13, 1752. In 1776, he enlisted and served as commissary through the war. Came to Pompey in 1801. He was a prominent businessman and became a large cattle dealer.

STEPHEN EATON - Died Oct. 29, 1838, at 77y. Stephen Eaton was born in Ashford, Ct., May 4, 1761. He served in Capt. Daniel Allen's Co., Ashford, Ct. '77-'80, with Comfort Tyler, and moved to Albany Co., in '86, coming then to Manlius in 1790.

ELIJAH GRIDLEY - Died May 9, 1845, at 85y. He was a pensioner in 1840, whose name was in Capt. Judson's Co., Conn. 1776. Also in Capt. Bray's, and in 1790, in Farmington, Ct.

FRANCIS HALE - Died Jan. 28, 1834, at 75y. He enlisted in Capt. James Buckston's Co., and was transferred to Capt. Oliver Rouse's Co., Col. Jackson's regiment serving till the war ended.

DEA. JOSEPH HART - Died Oct. 26, 1837, at 72y. Name in Capt. Trickers Co., 1st regiment, Hunterdon, N.J., and in 1790 served in N.Y. and New England.

JOHN WHITE - Died April 4, 1817, at 55y. A frequent name in N.Y. and New England rolls.

SAMUEL MORRIS - Died Apr. 29, 1838, at 92y. The name is in the Somers militia, N.Y., but he was too young for the dates in Conn. rolls.

MOAN PALMER - Died May 28, 1835, at 71y. From Branford, Ct., in 1790, but the name that year appears only in Manchester, Vt. It is also in 11th Regt., Albany Co. Land Bounty Rights.

AARON PARKINSON - Died July 20, 1835, at 74y. Somers militia, New Jersey.

CAPT. ENOS PECK - Died May 23, 1835, at 83y. Enos Peck, father of Enos Peck of Canolus, came to Pompey from Vermont when went to Canolus, N.Y. in 1804. He served in Capt. Bigelow Lawrence's Co., in '81 and was also at Bennington and Saratoga. Bought Lot 23, May 12, 1790.

DAVID SCOVILLE - Born Sept. 1, 1758 - Died Oct. 7, 1826, at 68y. David Scoville was born in Meriden, Ct., and came to Oran soon after 1797. Enlisted as a private from Meriden, in Capt. Hough's Company.

CALVIN SPRAGUE - Died Apr. 27, 1822, at 78y. He said he owned nineteen acres of very poor land in Pompey worth not over $3.00 per acre. In 1776, he enlisted in Capt. Thomas DeWitt's Co., Col. Gansevoort's regiment, N.Y. Line and served four years as an ensign.

ELISHA THOMAS - Died Feb. 5, 1814, at 83y. In New Hampshire and Mass. Rolls. Probably a soldier.

JOE WILLIAMS - Died July 17, 1832, at 73y. Name in Capt. Dickinson's Co., Col. Wm. Regt., Deerfield, Mass. Two others in Mass. one in N.H. and one in N.Y. Probable.

EBENEZER WRIGHT - Died July 14, 1840, at 80y. There are many of the name in New England rolls and census of 1790.

SWEET CEMETERY

A sum of $400. was deposited with the Rector and Vestry of Christ Church in Manlius, New York, by a Lydia B. Hibbard, of Chicago, on the 26th of August, 1904. This was to be used as a permanent fund in trust for the purpose of caring for a cemetery known as "Gold-Murray," in the Town of Pompey, Onondaga County, on the West side of the highway (Henneberry Road), forming the eastern Boundary of said Lot 18. The cemetery is surrounded by a stone wall and presently a marker on the wall to the right of the entrance gate notes the cemetery as "Wm. Gold Hibbard, erected 1900." It is more commonly known today as the Sweet Cemetery.

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS BURIED AT SWEET CEMETERY

REUBEN MURRAY - Lieutenant in Albany Co. Militia, at Canaan, Albany Co., N.Y. in 1790. A letter to Mr. Walter Moore, Supervisor of the Town of Pompey, from the County Historian dated September 11, 1947, stated, in part, that: "The Rt. Honorable Winston Churchill recently accepted membership in the Society of the Cincinnati, which is composed of persons descended from officers of the Continental Army in the Revolutionary War. This Society was formed by the officers themselves at the close of the war and they provided for it's future existence by making possible for each of the original members to be represented by one living descendant. Mr. Churchill represents Lt. Reuben Murray, whose grave is in the Sweet Cemetery, sometimes called Golde-Hibbard Cemetery on the Hall-Henneberry Road, in the Town of Pompey." They expected Mr. Churchill to pay a visit to place a bronze marker showing Revolutionary War service on Lt. Reuben Murray's gravesite and were also hoping the Town of Pompey would restore the Cemetery in preparation for his visit. According to Mrs. Wright of the Onondaga County Historical Association, the expected visit of Winston Churchill actually never did occur.

It might well be noted that Reuben Murray was the great-grandfather of the well known Jennie Jerome, Churchill's mother. "A Soldier in the American Revolution, a ready wit, a writer and a balladeer, a tall commanding figure full of drive and imagination who had made and lost several small fortunes" are lines from the book, "Jennie," by Ralph G. Martin.

TIMOTHY SWEET - Died March 7, 1837, ac. 85 years. He is said to have served under Col. Warner and was at the capture of Ticonderoga and Crown Point. In 1775, he was taken prisoner in the Canadian expedition, carried to Halifax and then to the prison ships in New York. After a long time he escaped. Timothy Sweet came to Pompey in 1794 and the name was recorded in Ballston in 1790, but as Timothy Sweet, Jr., in Stephentown, N.Y.

Erected by | Hannah Wyman, to | the memory of CAPT. ISAAC DANKS, | who died June 17th, | 1819, in the 72d Year | of his Age.

He was the father of Hannah Danks, Ephraim Webster's wife, and the title points to Revolutionary service, though without record. His name is on the list at the Syracuse post office, and probably this is right. Though he had quite a family his name does not appear in the census of 1790. Buried at Onondaga Valley.

JOHN DUNN—The Lineage book says this veteran was born in Ireland, served in Canadian campaign and Col. Lamb's Artillery, and died in Onondaga in 1820.

GEN. JOHN ELLIS, | Died | June 20, 1820, | Ae. 56 Y'rs. | MRS. SUBMIT, | Relict of Gen. John Ellis, | Died | May 9, 1843. | Ae. 67 Y'rs. |

Family cemetery, Onondaga Hill. He is said to have been born in Hebron, Ct., in 1763, but served in the Mass. Line, the family having gone to Pittsfield. Mr. Chase said: "At the age of 14, John Ellis ran away from his home in Pittsfield, Mass., and began his services in the Continental army. He served throughout the war." He was made colonel in Onondaga Co. in 1812, and brigadier general in 1817 by Gov. Clinton. For a while he lived in Manlius, before settling at Onondaga Hill. His wife was Submit Olds. He introduced Merino sheep in Onondaga, and took a warm interest in all improvements.

WM. EVANS, | Born | Dec. 4, 1759. | Died | June 28, 1852. | Ae. 92 Y'rs 6 Mo. | & 24 D's. |

Adieu, my friends, a long adieu |

Till time shall be no more

May you the way to heaven pursue |

And greet me on that shore. |

Onondaga Hill. This pensioner was 80 in 1840 and lived with Noah Evans. His name is in the N. Y. Levies of Col. Dubois, and also in Capt. Strong's Co., Brattleboro, Vt. He may have served in both. He was in Brattleboro in 1790.

WILLIAM FAY—Onon. Cent. says that this pioneer, from Great Barrington, Mass., served seven years in the Revolution. The statement is that "For his services he received a military tract in the town of Onondaga, where he settled in 1796, bringing with him his two sons, Aaron and Augustus. The latter resided in this town 74 years and died here." There were no military lots in the town. A family history is more definite. He was born in Westboro, later Northboro, Mass., July 15, 1752, and married Bethiah Bassett, then widow Wright, and last Dinah ——. "Settled in Faytown, Onondaga Co., N. Y., near a valuable spring, which with an old pear tree, indicates the site of his first log cabin, when his nearest neighbor was two miles distant. He was in the war of the Revolution. 9 children." The first of these was born in 1780, and Aaron inherited the homestead here. The father was a private in Capt. Samuel Wood's company of Northboro minute men in the Lexington alarm, and several times later that year, and seems the one who served in '76 and '77. Faytown, of early days, was half way from Fairmount and Onondaga Hill.

DEACON | JOSEPH FORMAN | Died Jan. 15, 1824 | Aged 72 years. | "Mark the perfect Man | and behold the upright | for the end of that Man | is Peace. | Theirs were the bright and | Glorious hopes | Which chase away all darkness | from the soul | That throws itself on Heaven." |

MRS. HANNAH FORMAN, | wife of | Deacon Joseph | Forman died | May 24th, 1816: | aged 61 years. |

Onondaga Valley. He came from Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., in 1802, and was father of Joshua and Samuel Forman. He was born in Monmouth, N. J., July 27, 1752, and was ensign, 1st and 2d lieut. in Capt. Lemuel Conklin's Co., 4th Dutchess Co. Regt., April 12, '81, to end of the war. His wife was Hannah Ward.

Th Pompey

BENJAMIN HAYES—This pensioner was reported in 1840 as being 82, and the Simsbury records say he was born there July 28, 1758. His name appears in Granby, Ct., in 1790, and in the list of Connecticut pensioners in New York Onon. Cent., however, says: "Homer Hayes came to Pompey in 1815 with his parents, Benjamin and Alithere Bacon; he a native of Wales, born in 1746, who came to America when a young man and was in the Revolution. He settled in Pompey, where he died in 1842." His wife's name was Alatheia. At Simsbury he was hired by Micah Hays to enlist for the war in the 3d Conn. Line. He was corporal in Capt. Pettibone's Co. in '77, and private in Capt. Allen's Co., '77-'80.

The grave is on the western slope of the hills east of Pompey Hollow, and naturally belongs there, though within the lines of Madison Co. He was the son of Dudley Hayes, and was born at Simsbury, Oct. 31, 1759. He served for Ozias Higley, of Simsbury, under Capt. Judd, Col. Humphrey's Regt., 3d Conn. Line, and his name is also in the Short Term Levies, 5th Conn. Line, '79-'80. In Granby, Ct., in 1790.

This I have paid and so must you. |

I own the debt tis just and true |

And I am come to sleep with you. |

| Erected by their son A. W. H. |

He was from Harwinton, Ct., and was enrolled there in '75 as Alyn Haydon. Onondaga's Centennial says: "Allyn Heydon.....was a Revolutionary soldier whose commission (now in the possession of the subject of this sketch) was signed by Matthew Griswold, of Connecticut. Allyn Heydon came from Connecticut and took up a soldier's claim in Pompey in 1800, and his remains lie in the beautiful cemetery at Pompey Hill, marked by a simple monument commemorating his record as a soldier of the Revolution." The land he bought was about a mile east of Pompey Academy. He married Annis Peck, April 9, 1778, who was born in Harwinton.

DAVID HIBBARD—A family sketch of this pioneer says that he was a Revolutionary soldier, who settled on lot 6 about 1794. This was near the north line of the town. He bought this lot Aug. 6, 1792, for 200 pounds or $500. He was a carpenter as well as farmer, and in 1790 was in Ballsblow, N. Y., but was born in Greenwich, Ct., April 23, 1748, and married, in 1768, Leah Cronkhite of Kinderhook, N. Y. Though thus resident in Pompey he died in Milton, N. Y., Sept. 29, 1817, and was buried in Galway, where he had formerly lived. In the Revolution he was baggage-master of ammunition wagons. After the war he removed to Galway in 1784, and to Pompey in '94, where his tenth and youngest child was born. The family history says that Polly, his eldest child, born in 1772, taught the first school in Onondaga Co., at Morehouse's Flats, east of Jamesville. He was a prosperous man and gave his children a good education.

village bearing that name. He received an excellent education for his time, beginning in the local district school and finishing at Fairfield Seminary, being some time a student at the public schools at Ogdensburg. In vacations and after school at night, when at home, he was busy in assisting his father about the store and upon the large estate, thus becoming early accustomed to the transaction of business and dealing with all classes of people. After leaving school he continued to be the invaluable aid of his father, whom he ultimately succeeded in business. In March, 1847, he became the owner of the store, by purchase, and continued successfully in its conduct until 1879, when he disposed of his mercantile interests. The building in which the store was located is still a part of his estate, and its use for a store has never been discontinued. He had charge of his father's farming lands for many years, and was administrator of the estate after the father's death. He was eminently successful, both as a farmer and a merchant, and handled lands with profit. He passed away at his home at Ox Bow, February 23, 1896.

Mr. Cooper was baptized in the Protestant Episcopal church. There being no society near him after his removal to Ox Bow, he attended and supported the Presbyterian church, and was a contributor to all churches in his neighborhood. A thorough Christian, he desired to promote the welfare of his fellows, and was ever ready to foster any elevating influence. He was not allied with any fraternal societies, but practiced the virtues inculcated in them, and enjoyed the friendship and highest respect of a wide circle of acquaintances. Because of business demands, he felt that he could not afford to assume the responsibilities of public office, but was earnest in support of his principles, acting many years with the Democratic party, and with the Prohibitionists during his last years. A strictly moral man in every relation of life, he sought to keep temptation from the weak and those who were viciously inclined. He was especially sympathetic and kind in dealing with the poor. The esteem in which he was held is indicated by the fact that he was often chosen to administer estates and as guardian of orphan children. He had most remarkable mathematical gifts, and was often called upon to straighten out problems for students and teachers of his section.

Mr. Cooper was married, September 17, 1846, to Miss Nancy Hinsdale, who was born June 30, 1823, at Ox Bow, daughter of Ira and Hannah (Stephens) Hinsdale (see Hinsdale, VI). Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, namely: Chauncey Hinsdale and Ida Elizabeth. The latter died at the age of two years, and the former lived to be twenty-four and one-half years of age, a most competent and promising young man. He died in Louisiana, where he had a large plantation, and most flattering business prospects.

HINSDALE. This name was brought to America from England, and its representatives have been prominent and have given names to townships in several states. The descendants have filled honorable places in the social and business life of Jefferson county, and have kept untarnished the name bequeathed by worthy ancestors.

(I) Robert Hinsdale, the pioneer American ancestor, is first found of record as one of the founders of the first church at Dedham, Massachusetts, November 8, 1638. He was made a freeman March 13th of the following year, and was a member of the artillery in 1641. His wife, Ann, surname supposed to be Woodward, died in middle life. He moved to Medfield, where he was active in forming a church, as early as 1672. Subsequently he lived some years at Hadley, Massachusetts. There he married his second wife, Elizabeth, widow of John Hawks. He moved to Deerfield, where he was killed by Indians while gathering corn in the field. At the same time his sons, Barnabas, John and Samuel, were slain. This occurred on the memorable date of the battle of Bloody Brook, September 18, 1675, where the flower of Essex was massacred by the red men. His widow subsequently married Thomas Dibble. Robert Hinsdale's children were: Elizabeth, Barnabas, Samuel, Gamaliel, Mary, Experience, John and Ephraim.

(II) Barnabas, eldest son and second child of Robert Hinsdale, was born November 13, 1639, in Dedham. He was married October 15, 1656, in Hadley, to Sarah White Taylor, daughter of Elder John and Mary White, of Hartford, and widow of Stephen Taylor. He had five children.

(III) Isaac, fourth child of Barnabas Hinsdale, was born September 15, 1673, in Hatfield, Massachusetts. He was married January 6, 1714, to Lydia Loomis, born February 17, 1687, daughter of Joseph and Lydia (Drake) Loomis (see Loomis). He lived in Hartford, Connecticut, and had four children.

(IV) Jonathan, fourth child of Isaac and Lydia Hinsdale, was born March 17, 1724, in Hartford, and married Sarah Bernard, December, 1742. She was born September 17, 1727, in Hartford. He was the first settler in the town of Lenox, Massachusetts, in 1750. During the French and Indian war he went to Salisbury, Connecticut, and returned to Lenox after that struggle was over. He died January 31, 1811, and his wife March 4, 1791, in her sixty-fourth year. She was the mother of eight children.

(V) David, second child of Jonathan and Sarah Hinsdale, was born June 30, 1754, in Salsbury, and married Farazina Bemus, who was born March 24, 1753. They lived at Lenox and in Galway and Pompey, New York. He was a farmer, and his farm in Pompey is still in possession of his descendants. His family included twelve children.

(VI) Ira, eleventh child of David and Farazina Hinsdale, was born June 6, 1797, in Pompey, and died March 24, 1882, at Ox Bow, in the town of Antwerp. He was married November 4, 1818, to Hannah, daughter of John and Ann (Woodworth) Stephens, the last-named being a daughter of Abner and Hannah (Dyer) Woodworth, of Canaan, formerly of Norfolk, Connecticut, where Hannah (Stephens) Hinsdale was born November 6, 1797. Family tradition says that John Stephens was a drummer in the Revolutionary army. Mrs. Hinsdale died November 26, 1879, at Ox Bow. Immediately after his marriage Ira Hinsdale settled in the town of Antwerp, where he cleared up a farm, and tilled it successfully many years. By industry and prudence he was enabled to add to his lands until they amounted to five hundred acres. Late in life he rented his farm and moved to the village of Ox Bow, where he purchased several acres of land, and occupied himself in its care until his death. He introduced Merino sheep in his locality, and realized a handsome profit from the sale of wool during and after the Civil war. He was a Universalist in religious belief, and an old-school Democrat in matters pertaining to public policy. He had five children. George, the eldest, is mentioned at length in later paragraphs. Elizabeth married Elial Gilbert Wait, lived on a farm and in a hotel at Ox Bow, and died at Theresa, while visiting a niece there. Nancy is the widow of Nicoll J. Cooper, residing in Ox Bow (see Cooper). David Schuyler died at Ox Bow in 1872. Helen married Moses Rich, of Richville, St. Lawrence county, whom she survives and now resides in Chicago.

(VII) George, eldest child of Ira and Hannah Hinsdale, was born November 11, 1819, in Antwerp. He bought a farm adjoining that of his father, which he tilled ten years and then sold, and purchased a hotel at Rensselaer Falls, S. Lawrence county, which he kept a few years. This he sold and bought a farm in that vicinity. He was injured by a falling tree, and died from the effects of this mishap a week later, February 21, 1859, in his fortieth year. He married Harriet A. Hamlin, October 26, 1843 (see Hamlin), and they had three children. Ira Cassius, the first of these, is a merchant in Antwerp village. Florence, born August 8, 1848, was married January 2, 1877, to Alexander B. Clark, a merchant of Ox Bow (see Clark). George J. is a merchant at Rensselaer Falls.

PHILIP MILLARD. In a list of those citizens of Ellisburgh who are respected alike for sound ability and strict adherence to principle at whatever cost, the name of Philip Millard would stand very high. On the paternal side he traces his descent from Huguenots, who found a refuge from religious persecution in the new world, while through his mother he is of English ancestry, and belongs to the family from which sprang Wendell Phillips, the renowned champion of freedom for the slave.

Gardner Millard was born November 10, 1797, in Rehoboth, Massachusetts, and about 1818 moved to Genesee county, New York, and the following year came to Ellisburgh. His trade was that of a general mason. He was unswerving in his devotion to what he deemed right, giving proof of this by identifying himself with the anti-slavery cause at a time when to do so required no small degree of moral courage. He married July 24, 1817, Lavina, born January 21, 1798, daughter of Abizer and Chloe (Chase) Phillips, natives of Rehoboth, Massachusetts, where their children were born. Mr. Phillips was a farmer and shoemaker, and during the war of the revolution served in the patriot army. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips moved to Ellisburgh about the same time that Mr. and Mrs. Millard made their home there. They settled at Mannsville, where they passed the remainder of their lives. The death of Mrs. Phillips occurred in 1844, when she was eighty-four years old, and Mr. Phillips expired in 1856, having attained the remarkable age of ninety-six years.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard were the parents of the following children: Nathan T., born July 24, 1819, was a physician in Princeton, Wisconsin, and died April 4, 1897; Alpheus A., born December 7, 1821, was a farmer near Mannsville, and died April 27, 1883; Gardner J., born February 18, 1823, was a butcher and hotel keeper at Mannsville, and died September 1, 1874. Abizer P., born October 15, 1825, and is now living as a farmer in Ellisburgh; Merrill M., born April 26, 1827, was a mercantile clerk in "This holy man, having faithfully served the Lord in his place, and that also with good success through grace (He was a good man and God was with him), fell asleep in Christ, and went to receive his reward, Jan., 1683-4."¹

SAMUEL WHITEHEAD, Cambridge, 1635; an original proprietor at Hartford, where his home-lot before 1639 was on Main St., on what is now the south corner of Pearl and Main Sts.; but he had sold part of it to Richard Lord, before Feb., 1639-40, and part to John Skinner. He served in the Pequot War, 1637, and received a grant of land for his services, in 1671; he removed to New Haven, where he was admitted freeman, and a member of the General Court, Aug. 6, 1642; m. May, 1676, Sarah, widow of John Gilbert, dau. of Thomas Gregson; d. Sept. 1690.

MAJOR WILLIAM WHITING was an original proprietor of Hartford; his home-lot in 1639 was on the east side of the street now Governor St. In 1633 "the Bristol men had sold their interest in Piscataqua to the Lords Say and Brooke, George Wyllys, and William Whiting, who continued Thomas Wiggin their agent." Mr. Whiting retained his interest in Piscataqua until his death, and was one of the most efficient promoters of the trade and commerce of Hartford. He was also engaged in a patent for lands at Swampscott with Lords Say and Brook. He was one of the Committee who for the first time sat with the Court of Magistrates in 1637; freeman, Feb., 1640; Treasurer of the Colony from 1641 until 1647; chosen magistrate 1642, and continued in office until his death in 1647. In 1638 he was allowed to trade with the Indians; and he was appointed with Major Mason and others to erect fortifications in 1642, and the same year he was appointed with Mason to collect tribute of the Indians on Long Island and on the Main. He was a merchant of wealth, and had dealings with Virginia and Piscataqua; had a trading-house at the Delaware River, and also at Westfield. He begins his will, dated March 20, 1643, by stating that he intends "a voyage presently unto sea;" the last addition to his will was made July 24, 1647, and he probably d. soon after, leaving widow Susanna, who m. in 1650 Samuel Fitch, of Hartford, and (3), Alexander Bryan, of Milford; she d. at Middletown, July 8, 1673. Amount of Whiting's inv. £2854. — Ch.: i. William, went to England, was a merchant in London, and d. there in 1699. In 1686 the Assembly of Connecticut appointed him their "agent to present their petition (in reference to the Charter) to the King." ii. John, b. 1635; grad. Harvard Coll., 1653; m. about 1654, Sybil, dau. of Deacon Edward Collins, of Cambridge, joined the church in Cambridge, and lived there, and in Salem, where he rendered ministerial assistance to Rev. Edward Norris. In 1660 he removed to Hartford, and was ordained pastor of the First Church, as colleague with Rev. Samuel Stone; after Stone's death, in 1664, Rev. Joseph Haynes was settled as his colleague, and after many controversies Whiting withdrew with his followers.

THE WHITING ARMS.

* Several of his letters written in 1637, now in the State Archives, are sealed with his arms as above given. These arms are a variation of those of the family of Whiting of Boston, in Lincolnshire. — See Heraldic Jour. i. 160.

estimate of their numbers has been found, but as there were probably from seventy-five to one hundred men in the forts, the force opposed must have been a large one. An express was sent at once to Northampton. Red tape and a storm prevented action that night, but the next night a party of volunteers, with a few from Hadley, and "some of Lothrop's men," came up to the relief of our town. On the morning of Tuesday, the 14th, the united forces, under Appleton, marched to Pine Hill. Spies had doubtless reported the arrival of reinforcements, and the Indians had all fled.

Capt. Moseley, who was to play an important part in succeeding events, arrived at headquarters at Hadley on the night of the 14th, and was at once sent to this town. Maj. Treat, with the Connecticut forces, reached Northampton on the 15th, on which date the Council ordered Capt. John Mason to join him with a strong force of Mohegans. The concentration of so many men in the valley made it necessary to lay in a large stock of provision at headquarters. At this time wheat was the staple crop at Deerfield, used not only at the table, but as a circulating medium in barter, and in payment of debts and taxes. Maj. Pynchon owned a large estate here, and he with others had a great quantity of wheat in the straw, "about 3000 bushels was supposed to be there standing in stacks," says Hubbard. This had been spared by the Indians in the expectation that it would soon be their own. About the 15th Pynchon sent orders to have a part of this thrashed and put in bags, and to impress teams and drivers for its transportation. Capt. Lothrop was sent up with his company from Hadley to convoy the train to headquarters. He reached here without molestation, probably on the 17th of September.

* BLOODY BROOK MASSACRE. *

We now turn one of the darkest pages in the history of our town. Early in the morning of Sept. 18, 1675—a day memorable in our annals—"that most fatal day, the saddest that ever befel New England," Capt. Lothrop, "with his choice company of young men, the very flower of the County of Essex," followed by a slowly moving train of carts, marched proudly down the old Town Street, two miles across South Meadows, up Bars Long Hill, to the heavily wooded plain stretching away to Hatfield meadows. The carts were loaded with bags of wheat, upon which were a few feather beds and some light household stuff. These things may have been taken by Joshua Carter for his widowed sister, Sarah Field, planning an asylum for herself and helpless babes in her father's house in Northampton. But no evidence appears at this time of any intent to abandon the settlement. Southward along the narrow Pocumtuck Path, through the primeval woods, moved Lothrop and his men—brave, fearless, foolish. Confident in their numbers, scorning danger, not even a van-guard or flanker was thrown out.

Meanwhile the whole hostile force was lying like serpents in the way; but unlike the more chivalric of these reptiles, their fangs will be felt before a warning is given. The probable leaders were Mattamuck, Sagamore Sam, Matoonas and One Eyed John, of the Nipmucks; Anawan, Penchason, and Tatason, of the Wampanoags, and Sangumachu of the remnant of the Pocumtucks. There is no evidence that Philip was present, and the probabilities are against it.

Keen eyes had seen the preparation for Lothrop's march; swift feet had carried the news to the chieftains below, who at this moment were giving their last orders to their warriors lying in the ambush at Bloody Brook, into which Lothrop was marching in fatal security. From the top of Long Hill the path lay through the dense forest for a mile and a half, when it approached on the left a narrow, swampy thicket, trending southward, through which crept sluggishly a nameless brook. Skirting this swamp another mile, a point was reached where it narrowed and turned to the right. Here the path crossed it diagonally, leaving the marsh on the right. The soldiers crossed the brook and halted, while the teams should slowly drag their heavy loads through the mire; "many of them," says Mather, "having been so foolish and secure as to put their arms in the carts and step aside to gather grapes, which proved dear and deadly grapes to them." Meanwhile the silent morass on either flank was covered with grim warriors prone upon the ground, their tawny bodies indistinguishable from the slime in which they crawled, or their scarlet plumes and crimson paint from the glowing tints of the dying year on leaf and vine. Eagerly but breathless and still, they waited the signal. The critical whose names he "cannot get"? Is it supposable that Moseley or his men did not know the names of their dead or wounded comrades? Nor can it be believed that a complete list of Lothrop's loss could not have been made, when the names can now be given of twenty-five survivors of his company, who were then at Hadley or Northampton. The Boston dispatch was doubtless sent by those who buried the sixty-four men. This is the best authority. It is not possible that from seven to twenty-six bodies were left unburied where they fell. Maj. Treat was on the field in force, and there was no occasion for such haste as this would indicate. There is no reason for supposing that any man, unless it were Moseley's three, fell more than forty to sixty rods, at farthest, from the place of burial.

The following, with one addition, is Russell's list of the slain, arranged alphabetically, with residence added, so far as ascertained:—

And about six others.

John Stebbins of Deerfield, ancestor of all the tribe here, is the only man who is known to have escaped unhurt.*

Bodwell, a man of great strength, was shot in the left arm at the first fire. With his clubbed musket in his right hand, he fought his way through the swarming horde and escaped to Hatfield. Toppan, disabled by a shot in the shoulder, crept into the bed of the brook and drew the weeds on the bank over him as well as he could. He heard the Indians stepping over him, but was not discovered. Dutch has been previously noticed. In a petition to the Council three years later, Russ says he "received a shot in the bottom of his

To the much Honoured counsel now sitting in Boston, the Humble petition of John Stebbins (of muddy River), Most Humbly sheweth, your pore petitioner, hath bene a souldier, in the service of the country (about a year & halfe) & was under the comand of captain Lathrope & with him when he and his company were destroyed, & under the comand of captain mosley the Greatest part of the time he was out, I was never forced or pressed into the service, but voluntarily gave my selfe frely to the wars of the Lord, & my country—and now of late your petitioner, hath followed in these parts his caling of A carpenter, sometimes in one towne, & sometimes in another, about 5 months I have wrought in cambridg village, & after my worke there was finished, & removed to muddy River to doe worke there promised, the constable of the villiage, by order of the militia, came & pressed me for a garison souldier for Hadley, I went not out of the Villiage to avoid the prese, for I heard nothing of the prese, but my worke there was finished, and my selfe removed more a weke before, as may be made appear, your pore petitioner hath bene warned to appear before the committee of militia, at the villiage, for not attending that service, & by them assigned to pay fower pounds where vpon your pore petitioner, doth look upon himselfe much wronged & put to much trouble by being illegally pressed by the constable of another towne, & it hath bene the loss of much time & greatly to the damage of your petitioner—my humble request therefore to your honours is, thay you would be pleased to put an issue to the mater, or that you would be pleased to appoint a time for the hereing of the case, and that parsons concerned may have notice thereof. I cast my selfe downe at your Honours foot, and shall quietly sit downe satisfied with your Honours determination, & granting the request of your pore petitioner, he shall be farther engaged & incoredged in your service, & shall not cease to pray for your Honours happiness.

July 4th 1678 The Council on hearing of this Case declare that they judge it meet to discharge the said Stebbins from y^e said fine & his surety also.
